Spieth trial winners leads to 'inundation' of enquiries for Aquis stallion

Juveniles of first season sire again impress at yesterday's official two-year-old hit-outs at Randwick

Wild Botanica TURESTARS

BY JO MCKINNON AND ALEX WILTSHIRE

quis Farm's first season sire Spieth (Thorn Park) was the star of yesterday morning's much anticipated official two-yearold trials on Randwick's Kensington track, producing two impressive winners in Victory Moments and Wild Botanica.

The filly, Wild Botanica, was Spieth's first success story of the session, winning her heat over 855 metres by a half-length in the quickest time of the day (49.87 sec) to hold off the fast-finishing Okami Miss (Shalaa) and Pantonario (Not A Single Doubt), which was third.

In Heat 5 over the same distance, Victory Moments was a standout, hitting the line strongly to beat $1,150,000 I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) colt Zambezi River by a length and three-quarters (50.22 sec).

Trainer Kacy Fogden was delighted with both horses and now has designs on the Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) and Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick on October 2 with the talented pair. Continued on page 2>>

MORNING BRIEFING

Ryan's Capitalist gelding tops Hawkesbury breeze ups

"It wasn't the easiest trial, he got caught wide and had to come back and to see him quicken the way he did, you don't often see that in twoyear-olds," said Fogden.

As revealed in ANZ Bloodstock News earlier this month, following the colt's trial win over stablemate Wild Botanica on September 6 at the Gold Coast, Fogden holds in high regard the flashy looking Victory Moments but, while she's always been enamoured with the colt, the handler admitted that early on in his career she didn't expect Victory Moments to be such an early type.

"He's gorgeous, if you had looked at him four months ago you would think he needed time but he has just kept stepping up to the plate.

"He has such a beautiful rein on him. He's really furnished," she said. The first foal of Tris, a Group 3-winning two-year-old by Street Boss (Street Cry), Victory Moments was retained to race by his Hong Kongbased breeder, Tony Fung.

Fogden was also thrilled with the effort of Wild Botanica to win her heat and has personal links to the filly having purchased her dam Colosimo (Foxwedge) at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale for $55,000 from the Rosari Farm draft.

"It's so nice when you buy them and see their progeny come through," she said.

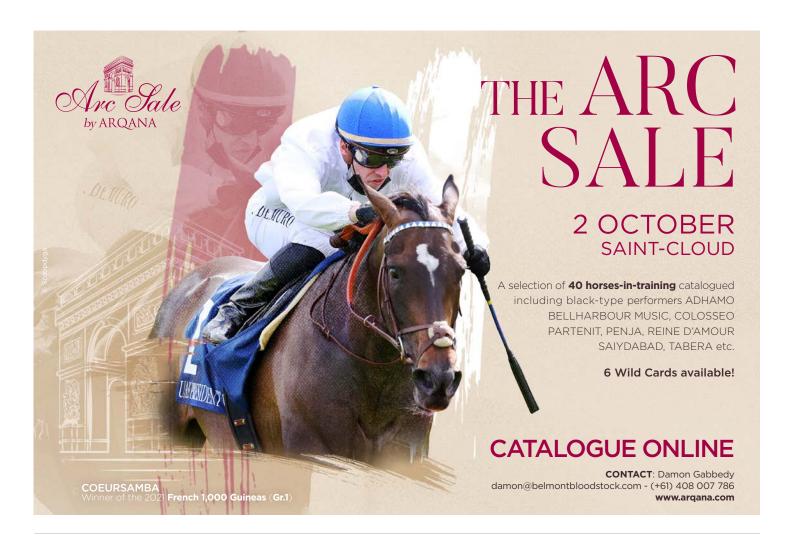

Victory Moments

TURFSTARS

Wild Botanica is the first foal from the three-time winning mare, who has a colt by Written By (Written Tycoon) that sold for $70,000 to Binalong Bloodstock from the Willow Park draft at the Inglis Australian Weanling Sale earlier this year, while Wild Botanica herself was picked up for just $4,000 at the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale by Upper Bloodstock.

With Fogden based in Queensland, Wild Botanica and Victory Moments are both being stabled with the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott stable in Sydney and will remain there until their possible racing assignments early next month.

Jonathan Davies, director of sales at Aquis Farm, said his phone had not stopped ringing after yesterday's trial results.

"We have been inundated with a lot of inquiries from well respected breeders. It was incredible. It was very much the dream result to have them both go down to Sydney and win and we couldn't be happier," he said.

"Kacy has had a very high opinion of the Spieth's for a couple of months now so it wasn't a surprise, but it was just nice to see her judgement was vindicated with both going down and doing that.

"You never know what they are up against at this time of year. There were some expensive horses in there from very good stables."

Since retiring to stud in 2018, and originally standing at Aquis' former Murrurundi base, two-time Group 1 runner-up Spieth has covered mixed numbers of mares each season.

In his first year he attracted a book of 149, in year two 89 and then he had a drop in numbers to just 39 in year three. Now residing at Aquis' Canungra base in Queensland, things are looking much more encouraging for him this season.

"Bookings have been fairly good for Spieth for a few months. There's been a quiet confidence about the horse and we are lucky to have some really good shareholders that have supported him and hopefully they will be rewarded.

"He's on target to cover over 100 mares and that number is going up every hour."

It's likely the momentum around Spieth will continue this Saturday as he is expected to have his first runner in the Pat O'Shea Plate (1000m), a feature two-year-old race at Toowoomba's standalone meeting.

Fogden has a colt by the name of Acotango, who races for Loretta Fung in the Aquis colours, especially earmarked for the race. He ran fourth at the recent Gold Coast trials.

"I have always looked at him for that race. It's a tricky track and he's nimble enough for it," said Fogden.

Merchant Navy two-year-olds also catch the eye

Drisana (red cap)

TURFSTARS

Elsewhere at yesterday's official two-year-old trials, fellow first season sire Merchant Navy (Fastnet Rock) supplied the winner of Heat 8, while he also had a second and third-place finisher from his four starters.

The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Drisana, the first foal out of Group 3-winning mare Broadband (Sebring), won the juvenile fillies heat in a time of 50.30secs, finishing three-quarters of a length ahead of Snitcat (Snitzel) when surging home over the final 400 metres.

The filly was a $125,000 purchase from the Inglis Australian We anling Sale last year.

Ciaron Maher trained dual hemisphere Group 1-winning Coolmore stallion Merchant Navy and assistant trainer Jack Bruce from the Maher and David Eustace stable was pleased with the effort of Calico Jack in Heat 7, as he chased home Resonator (Brazen Beau) to finish a length second to that rival, just head of Master Showman (Snitzel), a brother to four-time Group 1 winner Trapeze Artist.

"All the Merchant Navys are very cruisey customers and he is no different. He is laid back and eats very well," Bruce said.

"He's a horse that we didn't think initially would be here early. He's probably more quality and more of an autumn type. He's trialled particularly well there.

"I'm sure he is only going to improve with today's outing and if he's not a horse for two weeks' time, he's a horse for the Slipper."

Calico Jack was a $425,000 buy for Ciaron Maher from the Cressfield draft at this year's Magic Magic Gold Coast Yearling Sale. He is out of the Listed-placed, British-bred mare Shrill (Shamardal), a half-sister to Group 2 winners Silkwood (Singspiel) and Silent Honor (Sunday Silence).

Coolangatta Gimcrack-bound

Calico Jack was one of two runners at yesterday's Kensington trials for Maher and Eustace, whose Written Tycoon (Iglesia) filly Coolangatta soared to an impressive three-length win over American Pharoah's (Pioneerof The Nile) Wild Calm, who worked home well from a slow start in Heat 4. The winning time was 50.11 sec. Continued on page 8>>

<< Continued from page 6 The training operation prepared last year's early-season boom two-year-old Enthaar, also by Written Tycoon, to win the Gimcrack Stakes and present as the early favourite for the Golden Slipper after also claiming the Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m), but was spelled after running sixth in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Bruce said they will also target the Gimcrack with this filly.

"She is very much in a similar mould (to Enthaar). She's a very natural filly. She has come up from Melbourne and did a very good job down there," Bruce said.

"She's a very naturally fast filly and as you saw today she did it all on her ear, quite comfortably, and Ciaron and David have identified her and she will head there (to the Gimcrack Stakes)."

Racing in the silks of Ozzie Kheir, Coolangatta is out of More Than Ready (Southern Halo) mare Piping Hot, herself a daughter of Group 2 winner Ribe (Danehill), who in turn is the dam of Blue Diamond Stakes winner Reaan (Hussonet).

High-priced Psychiatrist one to remember

Four million-dollar two-year-olds stepped out at the public trials yesterday, with the Aquis-owned Psychiatrist (Exceed And Excel), a $1.05 million buy from the Inglis Easter yearling sale winning Heat 3 for the colts and geldings.

In heading home a Tony Fung-owned quinella, the Gerald Ryan and Sterling Alexiou-trained colt defeated Annabel Neasham's Narnia (Not A Single Doubt) by a head, with Capitalist (Written Tycoon) colt One Reason running from last entering the straight to third at the post, beaten by one and a half lengths.

One of four lots to make $1 million plus at the Easter sale from the Vinery Stud draft, Psychiatrist is the first foal out of Sanity (Lonhro), a sister to Group 3 winner Trim who, in turn, is the dam of Group 3 winner Manicure (Exceed And Excel) as well as Stubborn, dam of Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Gatting (Hard Spun).

Waterhouse and Bott to the fore

Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott are accustomed to preparing earlyseason juvenile performers, and yesterday they sent out a pair of twoyear-old trial winners.

Kibou Turfstars

The opening heat for the colts saw Tulloch Lodge provide the quinella, with Kibou (Maurice) running out a three-and-a-quarter-length winner over Ferrari Man (Menari), one of just 19 first-crop foals for Run To The Rose (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Menari (Snitzel).

Bott said their son of Maurice (Screen Hero) would now target the curtain-raising juvenile stakes race on October 2.

"He's a beautiful horse and has a lot of natural ability there," Bott said.

"On breeding, you would suggest that he'd get over a little bit further and be a little bit more of a later maturer, but the horse has got so much natural speed, as we saw today.

"There was a bit of improvement there, he was a bit awkward around the turn, but I loved the way he balanced up and had that sustained speed and was able to quicken off that."

Kibou was a $170,000 buy for Bruce Slade's Kestrel Thoroughbreds in conjunction with his trainers from the Arrowfield Stud draft at the Inglis Classic Sale.

He is out of Fortiche (Any Given Saturday), a winning half-sister to dual Group 2 winner Mic Mac (Statue Of Liberty).

Stocks Stakes for Butter Chicken

Trainer Grahame Begg is targeting Friday's Stocks Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) with his mare Butter Chicken (Savabeel). The four-year-old made her return in the Let's Elope Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington, a race in which she was met with interference, and Begg is now keen to step her up in trip for her second outing. "She experienced traffic, from barrier three it was always going to be a messy race. The tempo of the race didn't set up how we thought it would have been going into it," Begg told Racing.com. "She did wind up late when she got some clear galloping room. Steps to a mile at her next start in the Stocks Stakes at Moonee Valley and hopefully she will be able to put it all together." Begg also noted that he was pleased with the return of dual Group 3-winning filly Dosh (Rich Enuff) after she finished third in the Cap D'Antibes Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Flemington after a long layoff. "She has come through the race with flying colours. More than likely she will have her next start in the Schillaci, where she will have 51 kilograms and 1100 metres around Caulfield will see her in a good space I would think," he said.

Spinning turns city placings into win

A return to metropolitan racing looks set for Spinning (Pierro) after the promising Tom Dabernig-trained filly won her maiden first up this preparation over 1100 metres at Horsham yesterday. The three-year-old was placed behind smart types Gimmie Par (Not A Single Doubt) and Generation (Snitzel) in both of her juvenile starts at Caulfield over sprint distances before saluting for the first time in her career yesterday. Spinning started as the $1.30 favourite and was one of two fillies who had previous race experience in the seven-horse maiden. Although she broke slowly from barrier four, Spinning settled in second last under jockey John Allen and circled the field to be well on top at the finish for a half-length win over Sizzling Sonata (Sizzling) with Miss Field (Deep Field) back in third. "She was probably a bit slow away but it's very blustery out there so it might have played in her favour just to get a bit of cover," Allen told Racing.com. "We were able to track up on the back of Lindsey Smith's horse (Miss Field) and she rounded them up quickly and quickened up really well." Next on the agenda for the $210,000 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale purchase could be the Thoroughbred Club Maroona Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield on October 9.

Gavenlock hoping Cream can Rise at Gosford

Trainer Kylie Gavenlock is hoping that Cream Rises (Fastnet Rock) can make a winning start to his campaign tomorrow, as the midweek metropolitan card heads to Gosford. The lightly raced four-year-old has won two of his three career starts, including a four-andthree-quarter length romp at Gosford on debut. The gelding was then sent to Sydney on just his third start, finishing a luckless fourth before being put away for a spell. Now being targeted at the brand new $700,000 Four Pillars (1500m) race being held on October 30, Gavenlock is hoping that a win tomorrow can bag Cream Rises one of the 18 slots available for the feature, a race that is modelled in a very similar way to The Kosciuszko (1200m). "Hopefully this is the start of a prep that we can maybe get a run in a race like the Four Pillars," she said. "He's come back a bigger, stronger horse. He'll probably get a little bit of ground this time in." Cream Rises has had two trials in the lead up to tomorrow's Vinery Handicap (1200m), finishing behind Sydney Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Trumbull (Darci Brahma) in the most recent of them. The four-year-old has drawn barrier nine with jockey Glen Boss in the saddle and he will carry the minimum weight of 54 kilograms.

Profiteer on track for Moir Stakes

Profiteer (Capitalist) looked in good order as he galloped around the Moonee Valley track in preparation for his tilt at the Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) on Friday night. The Mick Price and Michael Kent Jr-trained three-year-old was the only horse on the track to break 24 seconds for the final 400 metres. Co-trainer Price knows what it takes to win the Moir Stakes having won it with fellow three-yearold Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) in 2016 but realises the huge competition that comes with a Group 1 race. "While we've got him cantering beautifully, he's a cannonball out of the gates and how do you change that, you can't," Price said. "But this horse is such a fast horse, he'll put himself up there, and it'll be a matter of what he finds after this spell. He's in beautiful condition and will have Jye McNeil." While it has proven difficult for twoyear-olds that competed in the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) to take the step up to spring three-year-old races, Price has confidence in Profiteer. "If it was an ordinary race, he'd go and win. There's a lot at stake and I can't do a lot more."

McDonald booked for Epsom-bound Dalasan

Group 1-placed Dalasan (Dalakhani) will now be aimed at the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m), for which he is a current $51 chance, after connections secured the booking of jockey James McDonald for the five-year-old. Trainer Leon Macdonald confirmed the news yesterday following Dalasan's eye-catching eighth of 16 in the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield on Saturday. "Andrew (Gluyas) and I have decided to send him to Sydney and have a crack at The Epsom," Macdonald told Racing.com. "His form there earlier this year up there was so good and we were rapt with the weight (54.5 kilograms) he received for The Epsom. We've also been able to secure James McDonald for the ride which is certainly not going to harm his chances." Last preparation brought about two top-level placings for the gelding, with a third in the Doncaster (Gr 1, 1600m) behind Cascadian (New Approach) before a terrific run to fill the same spot behind Addeybb (Pivotal) and Verry Elleegant (Zed) in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). "Those two runs at Randwick are very much etched in our minds and he will travel up to Sydney at some stage this week," Macdonald said. "Visually he ran well on Saturday and the clock backs up his performance too."

I'm Thunderstruck set for big spring targets

I'm Thunderstruck (Shocking) is set to be given some exciting spring targets after his excellent third placing behind Sierra Sue (Darci Brahma) in the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield on Saturday. The fouryear-old gelding is set to have one more run in Melbourne before heading to Sydney for a crack at the $7.5 million Golden Eagle (1500m) race. "He's pulled up good, he got pinballed a bit on the day but he ran super and he will train on for the Toorak which is three weeks and then three weeks into the Golden Eagle, so it's a good program for him," trainer Mick Price told Racing.com. "The question is is he a Group 1 handicapping horse at this stage, and I think he is, and I think the mile will be good for him too." I'm Thunderstruck was first trained in New Zealand by Matamata-based Daniel Miller, winning his 1000-metre trial at Te Aroha in June last year before then being privately sold to OTI Racing through bloodstock agent Phill Cataldo.

Griffiths and de Kock eye big spring prize

RACING PHOTOS

Three-year-old filly Gonnadancealot (Sir Prancealot) will resume in the Kennedy Oaks Preview (1800m) at Flemington tomorrow, with training partnership Robbie Griffiths and Matthew de Kock aiming her at the Victoria Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) on November 4. The daughter of Sir Prancealot (Tamayuz) had a trial at Cranbourne last week under jockey Damien Oliver, who won last year's Victoria Oaks on Personal (Fastnet Rock), and will also take the ride on the filly tomorrow and her trainers are hoping that the champion jockey remains her rider throughout the campaign. Gonnadancealot won a ballot exemption into the Oaks when she won the Byerley Handicap (1800m) in July, and will now be lightly campaigned in the hope that she can produce a peak performance on November 4. The Ethereal Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Caulfield on October 16 will be the filly's final run before heading into the Oaks. "She had a blow out at the trials but Olly was happy with her," Griffiths said. "She's behind in her fitness, but that doesn't worry us. It's all about being at peak on that Thursday in November. She's just got to please us on Wednesday, give us a happy run at the 2000 metres and then hopefully she's cherry-ripe on the Thursday for the Oaks."

Hayes looking forward to AFL Grand Final

Despite being a trainer of horses, JD Hayes will have a big interest in the upcoming AFL Grand Final on Saturday. Hayes' twin brother Will is a Western Bulldogs listed player and is with the squad ahead of the game in Perth, while JD himself is a former Footscray VFL player, being an emergency for the VFL Premiership team in 2016. "I played quite a bit of footy with (Bulldogs forward) Mitch Hannan and got to know most of the boys pretty well when I was playing VFL there back in the day," Hayes told Racing.com. "I have lost touch a little because I haven't been at the club the last three years, but it seems to have a similar feel to 2016 in how they're building momentum." The Bulldogs are set to start the match as the outsiders against Melbourne in what will be a first AFL Grand Final held in Perth and the second year in succession that the match will be at night on the eastern seaboard. JD said the late timing of the game is likely to see his big brother and training partner Ben oversee much of the Lindsay Park responsibilities for the weekend. "Ben might have to look after the Sunday. And probably the Monday as well if we win. Maybe Wednesday too," he said.

Ayrton's spring officially over

Co-trainer Mick Price has officially abandoned Ayrton's (Iffraaj) spring preparation with the son of Iffraaj (Zafonic) now set to be spelled in the paddock. The four-year-old was sent to the South Eastern Equine Hospital last week after swelling had been found on his near-hind leg and while he has responded well to the subsequent treatment, connections have decided not to take any risks with the gelding who was set to run in both the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) and Golden Eagle (1500m) this campaign. "As of yesterday his four out of five lameness has gone down to a one out five and the infection has subsided a lot, mind you he's on pretty intense antibiotics so when you come off antibiotics you have to see how the horse reacts," Price, who trains in partnership with Michael Kent Jnr, told Racing.com yesterday. "I'd say this preparation is a no no, give him a nice spell, build him up again." Price will be hoping that his I'm Thunderstruck (Shocking) can provide a change of luck after his excellent third in the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes on Saturday. "He's pulled up good...he will train on for the Toorak which is three weeks and then three weeks into the Golden Eagle" Price said.

Ryan's Capitalist gelding tops Hawkesbury breeze ups

A gelding by Capitalist (Written Tycoon) from the Blake Ryan draft at the Inglis Ready2Race Sale recorded the fastest time at Hawkesbury's breeze up session on Friday. The juvenile, who is out of US-bred Grade 3 winner Orchestrator (Bernstein), stopped the clock in 10.13 secs for his furlong. Having been passed in as a weanling, the gelding was picked up for $85,000 to JGR Bloodstock out of the Inglis Easter yearling sale. "When he hit the front, bang, his ears go forward and it shows he was really enjoying his work, he gave me a great feel," said Ryan, "As a group, they all breezed as well as I could have hoped and having shown promise at home, it was great to see them all deliver on breeze day." Ryan was celebrating success for three of his graduates who all recorded wins at the start of this month. "I'm proud of the success that graduates of my draft have had in recent seasons," Ryan said. "We had four winning graduates in the space of a week at the start of September, including Obfuscation, Different Strokes and Arthur Francis. Three of the four were from last year's draft and all of them look above average. We live and die by the success of horses that we produce, so I think people can look at my draft and take confidence that they have been prepared properly for careers as winning racehorses, based on the precedent set by those that have gone before them." A total of 50 horses breezed at Hawkesbury on Friday, with 39 breaking 11 seconds for the 200 metres.

Vella pleased with Ready2Race breeze ups

Juveniles consigned by Matt Vella's Glenn Haven operation recorded eight of the 12 fastest times at Hawkesbury on Friday, led by a colt by Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) out of More Than Ready (Southern Halo) mare Palazzo Cristallo, who clocked 10.15 secs. "I was extremely happy with how our entire draft breezed-up" Vella said. "The most exciting thing is knowing that these youngsters all had extra gears up their sleeve, so I'm very happy with them. Education of racehorses is where I excel, it's what excites me, and I am very confident in the quality of the prospects that we are bringing to the sale – I think it's a very good group." Vella also had a son of Capitalist impress, with the juvenile out of the stakes-placed Labdien (Stryker) record 10.21 secs for the 200 metres, while colts by Merchant Navy (Fastnet Rock) and Hellbent (I Am Invincible) recorded times of 10.27 secs and 10.28 secs on the Hawkesbury synthetic. To view video of all the Hawkesbury breeze ups, click here.

Headwater colt fastest at Eagle Farm

A colt by Headwater (Exceed And Excel) was fastest at the breeze-up session at Eagle Farm on Wednesday. The juvenile from the Symphony Lodge draft recorded a time of 10.17 seconds on the dirt track. "We couldn't really have asked for the horses to have gone any better," said Symphony's Lodge's Alison Park. "With this sale format in mind, we are very particular about the horses that we look to identify through the yearling sales series, so we are delighted with how they have developed and are very much looking forward to the sale." The first foal out of Leica's Lass (Pluck), the colt was a $62,000 at the Inglis May HTBA Sale for Symphony Lodge. To view video of all the Eagle Farm breeze ups, click here.

No crowd for Caulfield Cup

After Sunday's announcement of the Victorian State Government Roadmap out of Covid-19 lockdown, the Melbourne Racing Club (MRC) has been left with little alternative but to run the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) without spectators. The announcement stated that there will be no crowds at public events prior to October 26, meaning the Caulfield Cup Carnival will miss out given its October 9 to 16 dates. Last year's Caulfield Cup Carnival was also run without spectators on course, and the MRC was hoping to have members back on course for this year's renewal. "It's obviously disappointing we can't have our Members and fans on course for another Carnival," MRC chief executive Josh Blanksby said. "We are looking forward to the day where we reopen our gates and hope to be in a good position to welcome spectators on course for the new Zipping Classic race day at Caulfield in late November." The MRC has since said it will continue to work closely with the Department of Health and Human Services in order to try and bring members and racing fans back to the track as soon as possible.

Time brought forward for night racing

The starting times for the first month of night racing have been brought forward, Racing Victoria (RV) have announced, commencing with the Moir Stakes meeting at Moonee Valley. With public attendance currently prohibited on all Victorian racetracks due to the current Covid-19 restrictions, RV have decided to bring forward the meetings so that they can finish an hour earlier than the previously agreed time of 9:45pm. The first four meetings scheduled for the series, starting on Friday night and running until October 15, will begin at 5:15pn and will finish at 8:45pm with 30-minute intervals between each race. The race times for meetings after October 15 will be determined at a later point when further information on Covid-19 restrictions is available. The Moir Stakes will be the seventh of an eight-race card scheduled for Friday, with the feature race due off at 8:15pm. The other Friday night meetings to be held over the next month are on October 1 at Moonee Valley, the Pinker Pinker Plate (2025m) meeting at Cranbourne on October 8 and an October 15 at Pakenham.

Adam Campton to start training operation

Adam Campton has taken out a training license to operate a stable from the Gold Coast this season. Campton is the grandson of Group 1-winning trainer Les Coles, who delivered Even Stevens (Fair's Fair) to the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) - Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) double, and the son of Group 1-winning jockey Neil Campton. Having worked for the Hong Kong Jockey Club for the past four years, Campton has returned to Australia with his partner Tayla Walley. In a statement via Campton Racing, Campton said: I'm very excited by this new challenge in my career. I've never been afraid of hard work and I am determined to put in the hard yards to get our stable to realise the potential that I know I can. I would also like to express my thanks to Racing Queensland and Gold Coast Turf Club for their support and for giving me the chance to follow my dream."

NEW ZEALAND

Collett set for Brisbane

Leading New Zealand jockey Samantha Collett has decided to permanently move to Brisbane after enjoying her winter stint over in Queensland. "I really enjoyed my time over there. I came home and thought it was the right time for a new challenge," Collett said. "I have ticked a lot of boxes here - I have been a premiership winner, I have had three Group 1 wins, and I have had close to 50 stakes winners. I have been riding for 15 or 16 seasons and I have had some great support." While there previously, Collett mainly rode for Taranaki-based trainer Robbie Patterson and has admitted that it will be hard having to build connections again but that she is looking forward to challenging herself and continuing with a busy schedule. "I have never lacked a work ethic," she said. "I like to be busy and I like to ride where I can for who I can. I have the privilege of being a natural lightweight as well, so that helps. I have averaged between 800 or 900 rides every season here so I am always busy and that is something I am looking to continue in Australia. I will have to establish some new connections and show my face around."

Nicholas suffers broken leg and arm in fall

Apprentice jockey Elen Nicholas is likely to have an extended period on the side-lines after she broke her leg and arm in a bad fall at Te Aroha on Sunday. The 25-year-old had surgery at Waikato Hospital on Sunday night after being thrown from her mount Hot Pinx (Iffraaj), who clipped heels in the final race of the Pakuranga Hunt Club meeting. Nicholas' partner, dual licensed jockey/trainer Shaun Phelan, said she was subsequently knocked unconscious after the fall but that she hadn't suffered any other serious head injuries. "She's got a broken arm and broken leg and had surgery last night," Phelan said. "It's the same leg that she broke six months ago, the tibia. The phone has gone non-stop with calls from wellwishers." Nicholas, who had won the previous race on Le Sablier (Tavistock), also suffered a compound fracture of her ulna, with her radius also becoming displaced as a result of the fall. Racing Integrity Board stipendiary stewards have opened and now adjourned an inquiry into the fall. Meanwhile, X-rays have shown that jockey Danielle Hirini has not suffered a broken leg after her fall at a Hastings jumpout yesterday morning. The jockey was taken to the hospital after her fall which has left her with a hematoma on her thigh.

Macnab savours brilliant day in the saddle

Jockey Sarah Macnab made a great start to the 2021 Hawke's Bay Spring Carnival at Hastings on Saturday as she picked up her first Group success aboard Bellacontte (Burgundy) in the Gold Trail Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). Coming almost three years after a fall that could have ended her career, the 22-year-old nearly rode her first ever Group 1 winner on her first ever elite-level ride when she was a close second on Spring Tide (Darci Brahma) in the Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m). "It was an amazing day on Saturday," Macnab said. "The Gold Trail was the biggest win of my career so far, and it was great to do it on a filly like her. She's just so easy to ride, you can do anything on her and ride her anywhere, and she does whatever you ask her to do. And then Spring Tide ran such an awesome race in the Tarzino. It was my first Group 1 ride, and it was the biggest race of the horse's life too he'd never been tried at that level before, and he ran so well." Macnab is currently enjoying a good association with trainer Chrissy Bambry, who trains both Bellacontte and Spring Tide, riding six winners and four places from 17 rides to date.

ASIA

First winner for Yankee Rose

Yankee Rose (All American) recorded her first winner as a broodmare, when Romneya (Deep Impact) won a 1600-metre newcomers race at Nakayama on Sunday. The first foal from the Group 1-winning mare, the filly was a 226,800,000 (approx. AU$2.8 million) purchase from the Hokkaido Select Weanling Sale in 2019. Her colt by Lord Kanaloa (King Kamehameha) sold for 370,000,000 (approx. AU$4.66m) at the Select Weanling Sale last year.

Straight Answer

Juddmonte homebred Straight Answer (2 c ex Straight Thinking by Mizzen Mast) justified favouritism in the Blenheim Stakes (Listed, 6f) at Fairyhouse and remained unbeaten, having won on debut at the Curragh last month. The Ger Lyons-trained juvenile became the 72nd individual stakes winner for his sire Kodiac (Danehill). Ridden by Colin Keane, he led early and was ridden clear a furlong from home before extending the advantage to win by five and a half lengths from Glengarra (Profitable) and Mise Le Meas (New Bay) who were split by a head for second and third respectively. Straight Answer is out of the French Group 3-placed Straight Thinking (Mizzen Mast), who is a half-sister to Group 1 winner Announce (Selkirk). Kodiac stands at Tally-Ho Stud in Ireland where his fee this year was €65,000 (Approx. AU$105,200).

SAF: BSA graduates dominate Cape awards

Fresh off dominating the recent Equus Awards ceremony, Bloodstock South Africa graduates were once again to the fore at Sunday night's Cape Breeders Awards. BSA sold thoroughbreds claimed eight awards at the virtual ceremony, with the Wilgerbosdrift & Mauritzfontein-bred Rainbow Bridge (Ideal World) picking up three awards, including the award for Horse of the Year. Already crowned South Africa's Horse of the Year for 2020-2021, Rainbow Bridge was also named Cape Bred Champion Older Male and Champion Middle Distance Horse. The seven-year-old was a R300,000 buy from the 2016 National Yearling Sale and he is out of Halfway To Heaven (Jet Master), who was named the Cape's Broodmare Of The Year for 2020-2021. Other horses offered for sale at past BSA sales to garner a Cape Breeders Award on Sunday included Good Traveller (Visionaire), Champion two-year-old colt, Jet Dark (Trippi), Champion three-year-old colt, he sudden retirement of star mare Avantage (Fastnet Rock) shook the headlines late last week after it was discovered that she had heat in her off-fore. A subsequent X-ray found a hole in the tendon and Te Akau Racing immediately withdrew her from Saturday's Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m).

RACING - THE GREAT EQUALISER

LLOYD JACKSON | @ANZ_NEWS

Combining the huge demand for quality broodmares, with the stud season just into its third week, the mare's connections wasted little time in deciding her future.

She is to be sold on plus.gavelhouse. com, the auction initiated Sunday night and to conclude at 7pm New Zealand time on Wednesday, September 22.

Throughout the year highly performed and well-related mares have been selling for huge sums and none are better bred than Avantage. Only her ex-stablemate Melody Belle (Commands) can claim a superior race record.

What her purchase price might be is anyone's guess, however, there is every possibility that she will set a new record for a sale via any digital platform.

With less than 48 hours remaining before the hammer is lowered the bidding is already at $1.6 million. It will not surprise to see that figure double when the dust settles.

Big money, no guarantee

While apparent millions are being thrown around for such mares it is also quite sobering to know that success at the highest level is not necessarily determined by huge pots of money, although it does help in accessing the best bloodlines.

The three Group 1 races run on Saturday

are glorious examples of the great equaliser – performance on the track. On the racetrack, horses neither know their pedigree nor their purchase price.

Non-share holders in Zed (Zabeel), Darci Brahma (Danehill) and the late Atlante (Fastnet Rock) needed to outlay a grand total of $33,000 in service fees to breed to Verry Elleegant, Sierra Sue and Callsign Mav.

In 2014, the season Verry Ellegant was conceived, the fee to Zed was $5,000. In 2015, Darci Brahma stood at $20,000 and Atlante, $8,000.

Mapperley Stud lost the services of Atlante after just one and a half seasons and Darci Brahma's fee is currently $15,000. Zed's fee has increased to $6,000.

Verry Elleegant was retained by her breeder and not offered for sale but her dam, Opulence (Danroad) twice went through the ring.

In 2007, trainer Nick Bishara purchased

Opulence as a yearling from Highview Stud for $5,000. Four years later, Verry Elleegant's breeder Don Goodwin paid $14,000 for her as an in-foal broodmare, carrying her first foal.

In the cases of Sierra Sue and Callsign May, their buyers each managed a serious discount off the service fee.

For the outrageous price of $2,000, Peter Lock found Sierra Sue at the 2019 Karaka May Sale. The filly was already broken in, trialled, won and then sold to her current owners by agent Phill Cataldo.

Callsign Mav was offered as a weanling by Windsor Park Stud at the 2017 Karaka National Weanling Sale and made the princely sum of $3,000.

As John Malcolm, stud master at the famous Kinross Stud, once said to a young Denny Baker (Hallmark Stud): "No one knows where the next good horse is going to come from."

He could have added: "And big money is no guarantee either."

Is sea-water necessary?

Especially in New Zealand, it took ages for local breeders to recognise and support locally-bred and performed stallions.

Not so much in Australia. When Star Kingdom (Stardust) turned the Australian breeding industry upside down during the 1960s, Australian breeders flocked to his sons and grandsons. As a sire line, Star Kingdom is struggling sixty years on, but you do not have to look very far to find his strong influence in the bloodlines of a large proportion of Australian sire families.

A hundred years back, here in New Zealand, the colonials did get their opportunity but starting the last half of last century the "sea-water" factor drove the industry. Stallions apparently needed to be imported from the northern hemisphere.

Sobig (Summertime) was the first to change that belief and make buyers and breeders sit up and take notice. His success, which immediately followed his sire's death, was particularly strong in Australia.

Summertime (Precipitation) was a great "seawater" asset to the New Zealand Stud Book but Sobig altered the way breeders treated locally-bred and performed stallions.

The results of all three of Saturday's Group 1s are a testament to that change, as all were sired by the colonials.

Extrapolating the fact, across the 15 stakes races from Saturday, all but two were sired by New Zealand-bred or Australian-bred sires. Of the 57 metropolitan races run, 44 fit in the same category.

New Zealand's leading stud, Waikato Stud, currently stands six stallions. Each and every one was bred either in New Zealand or Australia.

For such a large scale operation, that fact is significant and proves how much things have turned around during the last 50 or so years.

The same stud quietly underlined that fact with their Savabeel (Zabeel) siring five metropolitan winners this past Saturday.

There were ten races on the Randwick card and Savabeel sired three of them, including Atishu, whose Bill Ritchie Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) win has set her up for a tilt at the time-honoured Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) next month.

Blue hen

She never won a New Zealand Broodmare of the Year title but she easily qualifies as a "Blue Hen". The reference is to Grand Echezeaux (Zabeel).

Sobig

PINTEREST

Her influence is clear via her two sons, threequarter brothers Darci Brahma (Danehill) and Burgundy (Redoute's Choice).

The August 17 edition of Kiwi Chronicles, which included comments from Rick Williams of The Oaks Stud, Darci Brahma's under-appreciated record was discussed. The stallion is a New Zealand treasure and his runners continue to get the job done even if they are somewhat overlooked in the sale ring.

One statistic that stands out is his 72 per cent winners to starters ratio. If you get a winner, there is a one-in-five chance that your winner will achieve some sort of black type and a better than one-inten chance of winning at stakes level.

On Saturday, Sierra Sue became his 12th Group 1 winner and she isn't finished yet. Only five years of age, the mare knows how to win and took her earnings to beyond the million dollar mark with a desperate lunge to bag the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), beating a stellar field.

Darci Brahma's three-quarter brother Burgundy is proving to be a sad loss to the industry, having passed away in 2019. His Bellacontte looked totally trapped half-way down the straight in Saturday's Gold Trail Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Hastings, but weaved out then back towards the fence before diving through to a good win.

The filly has won three of her six starts, has scored back-to-back stakes wins, and takes a healthy lead in the New Zealand Filly of the Year series. She must be a leading candidate for Group 1 honours at Riccarton in November.

Pencarrow Stud and the Vela Brothers raced Romanee Conti (Sir Tristram) with great success, she becoming the foundation mare for their highly successful operation. From her, they bred Ethereal (Rhythm), the last horse, and one of just 11 in history, to win the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m)-Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) double in the same season.

Romanee Conti's three-quarter sister is Grand Echezeaux. Both are from the Vice Regal (Bismark II) stakes-winning mare Richebourg.

A total of 14 stakes winners, made up of four Group 1 winners, three Group 2 winners, five Group 3 winners and three Listed winners, descend from Richebourg, and all in a relatively short space of time. The family, established by the late Jim Campin of Chequers Stud, is one the most desirable in the stud book.

Too easily overlooked

Valachi Downs' Vespa (Elusive City), a former Champion New Zealand Two-Year-Old, doubled his number of stakes winners when Wakari gamely held out the favourite to take his record to two wins in four starts in snaring the El Roca Trophy (Listed, 1200m) at Hastings.

When seriously challenged, Wakari simply out-toughed his opponent. It was a gritty and determined win.

On the racetrack Vespa proved himself as an early and sharp sprinter, scoring the Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and the Karaka Million (RL, 1200m) at two. Later, he placed at 1600 metres in Group 1 company.

From limited opportunities Vespa has sired 13 winners in two crops, five of which have achieved black type..

Better, but it still stings

Two weeks back, Kiwi Chronicles discussed the close-but-no-cigar results experienced by Rich Hill Stud.

That week saw Elephant (Shocking) and Riodini (Proisir) go so close in adding to their respective sire's records as well as gaining much valuable Australian black type exposure.

This week, their news is improved. Resident shuttler Vadamos (Monsun) claimed his first stakes winner when Art De Triomphe broke through in taking out the Canterbury Belle Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Riccarton.

She didn't just win, she waltzed away. Once she joined the leader at the 200 metres she was travelling too well, then left the others to it, clearing out by three lengths.

The exasperation from two weeks ago has not gone away, however. Riodini, by Proisir (Choisir), made another bold, front-running effort to steal the George Main Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and it almost paid off. Only the performance of a champion (Verry Elleegant) stood in his way. It was a gallant run and it pays to remember that he was giving the mare two kilograms yet gave her plenty to think about. He was caught very late in the piece, the margin just three-quarters of a length.

The wounds from a near miss in the Feehan Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) by the exciting Elephant (Shocking) are still fresh. They were repeated in the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes when another son of Shocking (Street Cry), I'm Thunderstruck, came so close, finishing a highly meritorious third.

His was a huge run. He was a clear last at the 800 metres and still last at the 400 metres.

When pulled wide into the short Caulfield straight he was severely bumped, sent sideways, yet somehow recovered, then flew hard for a mighty third.

Defying his race record

Shocking

RICH HILL STUD

Their sire, Shocking, is proving to be a bit of a mystery. Could it have something to do with his being a Melbourne Cup winner?

Certainly, he did win the great race and won it as a four-year-old, which is never easy for a young horse.

The question is, why is he suddenly siring sprinter-milers?

One answer might be the old adage that even in distance races, the fastest horse wins. Shocking may indeed have won at the extreme distance, but his third in the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) a mere five months prior to winning the Cup, probably suggested that staying was his bailiwick.

His maiden win was at 1300 metres yet the year following his Melbourne Cup victory he bagged the Group 1 Makybe Diva Stakes, a 1600-metre race also at Flemington.

That same season, but in the autumn, he was successful, again at Flemington, in the Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m).

His stats among his stakes winners is clear. They can stay all right but the mark of a good sire is versatility. There is clearly enough speed within his type and bloodlines. In Elephant and now I'm Thunderstruck, that speed is evident.

As for barn mate Proisir, the opposite appears true. Of Proisir's stakes horses just two have won beyond 1600 metres yet two of his fillies have Oaks form. Vancooga and Feel The Rush filled second and third in the 2020 New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m).

Proisir himself was most effective around the mile but he had the class to extend champion Dundeel (High Chaparral) at 2000 metres. His trainer, Gai Waterhouse, thought sufficient of his talent to line him up as a three-year-old in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m). He was having just his fifth start. That was some assignment.

It ain't over 'til it's over

Sakura Blossom (Vancouver) had the Hastings crowd in awe after her stunning performance in race two over 1200 metres.

She was completely left at the start, settling at least three lengths behind the second last runner. Passing the 600 metres she had caught the tail. Rounding into the straight there were three behind her but at the 300 metres was giving the leader a conservative eight lengths.

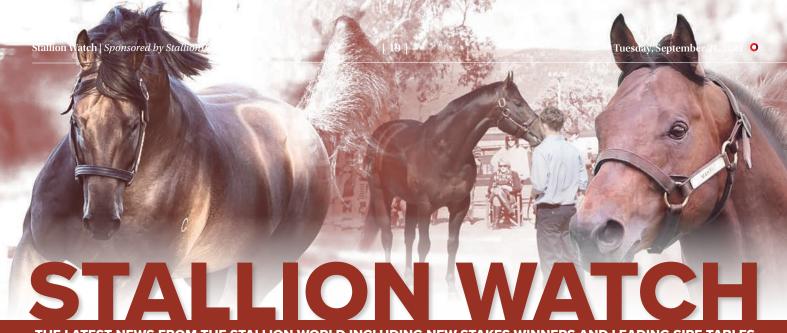

She wobbled and ran around for a few strides, balanced then charged hard. Still six lengths in arrears at the 200 metres, her chances of winning looked hopeless. At the 100 metres the margin was three lengths but she was flying; levelled up to the leader inside the 50 metres and had the audacity to streak three quarters of a length in front at the post.

The mare is now two for two. Her racing career was delayed due to bone chips but that behind her, her future looks very exciting.

A graduate of the 2019 NZB Ready to Run Sale, Sakura Blossom was offered under Janine Dunlop's Phoenix Park banner and made $150,000. She was originally offered as a weanling in Sydney, then passed in at the 2019 NZB Karaka Yearling Sale. She represents the first crop of Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) champion Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro).

She is the fourth winner from her unplaced dam while her granddam, Gold Affair (Made of Gold) produced nine foals, eight of which raced but none could manage a win.

Gold Affair does have something going for her, however. She ranks as a winning sister to Gold Anthem, the dam of champion sprinter Starspangledbanner (Choisir) and granddam of Amicus (Fastnet Rock), winner of Caulfield's The Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m).

THE LATEST NEWS FROM THE STALLION WORLD INCLUDING NEW STAKES WINNERS AND LEADING SIRE TABLES

Churchill COOLMORE

New first season sire winners

Churchill - Churchill's impressive start with his first northern hemisphere two-yearolds continued, recording his 16th and 17th individual winners. River Thames (2 c ex Where's Sue by Dark Angel) got his career off to a winning start at Punchestown on Tuesday. Ridden by Wayne Lordan, the Aidan O'Brientrained colt surged down the outside and kept on well in the closing stages to beat stablemate Changingoftheguard (Galileo) by a neck. Bought by Tom Magnier for 320,000gns from last year's Tattersalls October Yearling Sale (Book 1), River Thames is the second foal out of winning mare Where's Sue (Dark Angel), herself a sister to Group 3 winner Angel's Hideaway. Later in the week, Scriptwriter (2 c ex Pivotalia by Pivotal) got off the mark at the second attempt, again for O'Brien, on Saturday. Kept in midfield by jockey Seamie Heffernan, the two-year-old colt was asked for an effort two furlongs out and ran on well to lead in the closing stages to win by three-quarters of a length from Adonis (Siyouni) with Explorers Way (Australia) a further half a length back in third. A ninth foal, Scriptwriter is a three-quarter sister to Goolwa (Australia) and is a half-sister to three winners including Group 3 winner Onenightidreamed (Footstepsinthesand) and the smart performer Rotherwick (Starspangledbanner). Bred by Brian O'Neill, the Coolmore-owned colt was bought for £220,000 by Jamie McCalmont at the Goffs Orby sale, having sold for €125,000 as a foal. Churchill stands at Coolmore Australia for a fee of $22,000 (inc GST).

New Group/Grade 1 winners

Cape Cross - Walton Street (7 g ex Brom Felinity by Encosta De Lago) gave sire Cape Cross (Green Desert) his 14th individual toplevel winner when he claimed an easy victory in the Pattison Canadian International (Gr 1, 12f) at Woodbine on Saturday. Trained by UK-based trainer Charlie Appleby and ridden by jockey Frankie Dettori, the seven-year-old Godolphin homebred started as the odds-on favourite for the race and sat second for most of its duration before getting to the lead in the straight and pulling away from the field. The fast-finishing Desert Encounter (Halling), twice a winner of this contest, finished five and three-quarter lengths back in second. The early pacesetter Primo Touch (Midas Touch) held on for third a further four and three-quarter lengths back. "Frankie had his game plan and always knew he was going to kick on. He's done it nicely—I was delighted with him. We're delighted for the horse to win a Grade 1. He's been with us a long time, and he's a favorite in the yard," assistant trainer Alex Merriman said. Walton Street is a fifth foal from Australian-bred Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) winner Brom Felinity, who herself is a sister to Group 1 winner Delago Brom.

Darci Brahma - Sierra Sue (5 m ex Centree by Centaine) gave sire Darci Brahma (Danehill) his 12th top-level winner on Saturday when she got up just in time to take the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) by a short head from Dice Roll (Showcasing). There was an extra half a length back to the race favourite I'm Thunderstruck (Shocking) in third. Already a winner at Group 2 level in the P B Lawrence Stakes (1400m), Sierra Sue was unfortunate in the Feehan Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) last time out. Settled in midfield by jockey Daniel Moor, who was also celebrating his 37th birthday, the mare produced a strong late run to get up on the line for training partnership of Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young. Bred by John Fokerd, Sierra Sue is a seventh foal and half-sister four winners, including Australian winner Comic Miss (Pins). Owned by a syndicate including Ozzie Kheir and John O'Neill, the five-year-old was sold for just $2,000 in 2019. Sire Darci Brahma stands at The Oaks Stud for $15,000 (Plus GST).

Dubawi - Albahr (2 g ex Falls Of Lora by Street Cry) gave sire Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) his 45th top-level stakes winner when he easily scored in the Summer Stakes (Gr 1, 8f) at Woodbine on Sunday. In what was a Group 1 double on the card for trainer Charlie Appleby and jockey Frankie Dettori, Albahr went off the 13-20 favourite and was settled in the final pairing of the nine-strong field before being asked to improve as the race gradually played out. Asked for a full effort by Dettori a couple of furlongs from home, the gelding ran on well down the outside to win with a fair amount in hand at the line, coming home two and a quarter lengths in front of Grafton Street (War Front) with Degree Of Risk (Cairo Prince) a further length and a half behind in third. Bred and raced by Godolphin, Albahr is a fourth foal of UAE Oaks (Gr 3, 1900m)-winning dam Falls Of Lora and is a brother to winner Imperial Empire, while also being a half-brother to Australian Group 1 winner Cascadian (New Approach) and the useful winner Trossachs (New Approach). Dubawi currently stands at Darley Stud for a fee of £250,000 (approx. AU$471,000).

Frankel - A classy performance from Wild Beauty (2 f ex Tulips by Pivotal) in the Natalma Stakes (Gr 1, 8f) at Woodbine on Sunday saw her give sire Frankel (Galileo) his 19th top-flight winner as well as becoming his 79th individual stakes winner. Very slowly away under jockey Frankie Dettori, as well as being squeezed out at the start, the two-year-old filly had plenty of work to do from the outset despite going off as the 29-20 race favourite. Being gradually asked to improve by Dettori as the race developed, Wild Beauty swung round the outside of the field turning for home and powered her way to the line to win by two and a quarter lengths eased down from Pizza Bianca (Fastnet Rock). A further length and a quarter back in third was Eminent Victor (Mr. Z). The Charlie Appleby-trained filly had previously been second in a Listed contest, behind current 2022 UK 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) market leader Inspiral (Frankel), and second in the Sweet Solera (Gr 3, 7f) at Newmarket. Bred and raced by Godolphin, Wild Beauty is a fourth foal from Listed-winning dam Tulips and is a halfsister to winners Swift Rose (Invincible Spirit)and Ottoman Court (Shamardal). Frankel currently stands at Juddmonte Farm for a fee of £175,000 (approx. AU$330,000).

Town Prize - Town Cruise (6 g ex Candy Cruise by Candy Ride) gave sire Town Prize (Speightstown) his first ever elite-level winner and only his second ever individual stakes winner when he made all to win the Ricoh Woodbine Mile (Gr 1, 8f) on Saturday. On only his second ever start in a stakes race, Town Cruise took the early lead under jockey Daisuke Fukumoto and was not for catching as he won cosily under a handsand-heels ride for trainer, owner and breeder Brandon Greer. Two and a quarter lengths back in second was the Brendan Walsh-trained Space Traveller (Bated Breath) with Raging Bull (Dark Angel) a further three-quarters of a length back in third. "It feels a little surreal at the moment, but I'm absolutely thrilled with him," said Greer. "This horse is amazing. I absolutely love him. I could see him digging in; that's something that he's been able to do very well this year," he added. The win was the biggest in the careers of both Greer and Fukumoto, with the potential of further success yet after the gelding picked up an automatic spot in the Breeders' Cup Mile (Gr 1, 8f) held on November 6. Town Prize stands at Mapleville Farms in Canada for a fee of CAD$5,000 (approx. AU$5,300).

New stakes winners

Bon Hoffa - Bon's A Pearla (3 f ex Treasure Island by Duporth) provided sire Bon Hoffa (Belong To Me) with his fifth individual stakes winner when she took the Thousand Guineas Prelude (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield on Saturday. Settling in midfield, the Kevin Corstens-trained filly ran down the race favourite Heresy (Street Boss) to win by a head, with a further three-quarters of a length back to the third Elusive Express (Jakkalberry). "We've always liked her," Corstens said. "Even when we had her first in the stable, we were patient with her, and after her last start I still said that there was plenty of improvement in the coat. She still has improvement to come and hopefully we get it." Bred and raced by Ken King Thoroughbreds, Bon's A Pearla is a first foal from dam Treasure Island, who is a half-sister to Hong Kong winner Refined Treasure (Lope De Vega). Sire Bon Hoffa stood at Bowness Stud for a fee of $5,500 (inc. GST) in 2020.

Connect - Hidden Connection (2 f ex C J's Gal by Awesome Again) streaked clear in the Pocahontas Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Churchill Downs on Saturday to give sire Connect (Curlin) his first ever individual stakes winner. After coming in on the back of a seven-and-a-halflength debut victory on August 17 at Colonial Downs, the two-year-old filly sat second for most of the race under jockey Reylu Gutierrez before pouring it on down the straight to beat Mama Rina (Gormley) by nine and a quarter lengths with Goddess Of Fire (Mineshaft) a further neck down in third. "She was working at Keeneland this spring before we went to Colonial," trainer Bret Calhoun said. "When she was working there I thought she could be special. Then we went to Colonial and she won so impressively on debut. She didn't have as much experience as some of the horses in this race but she backed up that win very well." Hidden Brook, agent, purchased Hidden Connection for $85,000 from Coastal Equine's consignment at the Ocala Breeders' June Sale of 2-Year-Olds and Horses of Racing Age. The filly was bred in Kentucky by St. Simon Place and she is the second foal and second winner out of dam C J's Gal. Connect stands at Lane's End Farm for a fee of $15,000 (approx. AU$20,600).

Constitution - Major General (2 c ex No Mo Lemons by Uncle Mo) gave sire Constitution (Tapit) his 26th individual stakes winner when he held on bravely to win the Iroquois Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Churchill Downs on Saturday. After narrowly winning his debut at Saratoga on August 21, the Todd Pletcher-trained colt was mid pack early in the race under jockey Javier Castellano before making his move at the four-furlong marker and bravely battling on to repel Tough To Tame (Speightster) by a neck with Red Knobs (Union Rags) a further three-quarters of a length back in third. "You're always confident whenever Todd puts you on a horse," Castellano said. "His team does a great job and this horse is just learning. He seemed to enjoy going two turns and when the other horses got to him in the stretch he started to rebreak." The two-year-old was bred in Kentucky by Circular Road Breeders and is the first foal out of the unraced No Mo Lemons. Maverick Racing, the buying arm of WinStar, purchased the colt for $420,000 from the Woods Edge Farm consignment at the 2020 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Dark Angel - Wings Of War (2 c ex Futoon by Kodiac) emerged as the latest sprinting star to come from Clive Cox stable as he powered home to land the Free Mill Reef Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at Newbury on Saturday and became the 77th individual stakes winner for his sire Dark Angel (Acclamation). Under Adam Kirby, he tracked the front-running Hierarchy (Mehmas) before making his move from a midfield position two furlongs out and swoop ahead of that rival in the final few yards. He was giving Cox a second win in the Group 2 contest, five years on from the success of Harry Angel (Dark Angel), who went on to be champion sprinter the following season. Kirby, recording his third win in the race, said: "That was a nice performance. He appreciated getting his toe into the ground a little bit and after a furlong it was quite smooth. He lengthened all the way up to the line and really put his best foot forward there. He'll keep coming forward, he's not the finished article and he'll be a better threeyear-old." The Ed Bethell-trained Fearby (Havana Gold) ran on to finish third, a head in front of the favourite Dhabab (No Nay Never). Bred by Guy O'Callaghan's Grangemore Stud, Wings Of War was a £140,000 Goffs UK Premier Sale purchase by John and Jake Warren and he is out of the Listed-placed sprinter Futoon (Kodiac), while his third dam produced fellow Mill Reef Stakes winner Galeota (Mujadil). A progressive horse in handicaps this season, the five-year-old was a well-beaten last of five when taking on Group company for the first time in the Superior Mile Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) at Haydock but clearly appreciated the drop in class and step up in trip to come home a length and a half in front of the Group-winning Euchen Glen (Authorized) with a further two and a half lengths back to the Group-winning Juan Elcano (Frankel). However, she rectified that by winning as the $2.80 favourite by one and a quarter lengths over the fast-finishing Montefilia (Kermadec), with leader Entente (Dundeel) another neck away in third. Trainer Bjorn Baker was relieved to see She's Ideel claim a valuable stakes victory and also praised jockey Jason Collett. "I guess today, if you followed her along you were starting to lose a bit of face, so she had to put her hand up today and she did," Baker said after the race. "A great ride from Jason. He summed it up and it was a pretty easy watch throughout." She's Ideel will now be aimed at the Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) next month and also

On Art De Triomphe, who is now favourite for the 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), Bosma added: "Art De Triomphe is a very good filly and we've known that for some time.
