Smart Snitzel filly kept from public auction makes mark in Thousand Guineas

The upset Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) win of Yearning (Snitzel) did not come as a surprise to her prominent group of owners, leaving co-breeder and part-owner John Messara to declare the spring far from over, believing that the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) was within the filly's grasp.

The result for trainers Hawkes Racing and Arrowfield Stud in yesterday's three-year-old fillies race, now back in its traditional place on the Wednesday of the Caulfield Cup carnival, was the biggest result so far to emerge from the crop of yearlings withdrawn by Messara from the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale at the height of the first wave of Covid-19 in April 2020.

Maher snaps up Lope De Vega colt at Tattersalls

Champion Victorian trainer Ciaran Maher made his presence felt during the final session of Book 2 at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale yesterday when he teamed up with John Foote and Kern and Lillington Association to purchase a colt by Lope De Vega (Shamardal) for 100,000 guineas (approx AU$185,091). Catalogued as Lot 1108 and offered by Knockainey Stud, the colt is out of the Group 3-placed mare We'll Go Walking (Authorized), making him a half- Continued on page 15>>

<< Continued from page 1 "She and (Spring Champion Stakes winner) Profondo are out of that same season for us. They are starting to roll out those horses, from Magics and the missed sale at Easter and she's one out of the missed sale who we syndicated (privately)," a jubilant Messara said last night.

"(Yearning and (Group 3 winner) Mallory are from that (Easter draft), so there were some good horses in that bunch and there's still more to be seen.

"Look, it is not the outcome we chose, but we were stuck with that outcome and we did the best that we could in the circumstances.

"We have got a number of other very well bred ones, too, so that's been a positive out of all of this. You take into account the increased value of some of those and we're going to probably square off OK."

Ridden by Damien Thornton, Yearning ($26) scored by a length over her Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1610m) conqueror Elusive Express (Jakkalberry) ($9.50) with Barb Raider (Rebel Raider) ($7.50) one and three-quarter lengths away in third place.

"When you buy these high-class fillies, with the big pedigree, the owners put in a lot, a lot of money," Wayne Hawkes said.

"It's good for those expensive horses to actually win. There's a lot of owners that buy at the top end and a lot of the top end ones don't actually make the grade, so it's nice to nail a good one.

"I really want to thank the owners, though. All the owners have done a great job and John Messara would be sitting up there at Arrowfield and gone nuts, I reckon."

The VRC Oaks looms as a likely target but Hawkes would not rule out keeping Yearning, a Newcastle maiden winner on September 17, fresh for the Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) against the mares at Flemington on Derby Day.

"We just wanted to see how she'd run today," Hawkes said.

<< Continued from page 2 "Her run the other day was good (in the Edward Manifold). She got held up and then she let rip and the truth of the matter is that when she hit the front she half got lost.

"She was on her Sydney leg the whole way whereas today she was on her Melbourne leg.

"Her mum is a Caulfield Cup runner-up, so they are decisions that you have to go home and think about, so the stock answer is we'll go home and see how she pulls up.

"People always think 'yeah, yeah, yeah' but the truth of the matter is that she's done now.

"Whatever she does now is a bonus for the owners. It's game, set and match."

Yearning is the first foal out of Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Rising Romance (Ekraar), a mare Arrowfield Stud bought privately in partnership with Japanese powerhouse Northern Farm for about $900,000 at the completion of her racing career.

Her second foal, also by champion stallion Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), sold for $2.5 million to the Hawkes' at this year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale and connections have their sights set on a big autumn with the colt named Magic, who has barrier trialled twice recently in Sydney.

"(Yearning) was more a fine, scopey type and he was the more early going, sprinting type. It's funny, the same mare, by the same stallion and both of them are quite different, but I think both are going to prove to be quite talented," Arrowfield Stud chairman Messara said.

"We were happy with the trial. He was a bit green and he has been tipped out now. He will come back for the autumn and hopefully be in a decent race or two."

As for Rising Romance, runner-up in the 2014 Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), there's no prizes for guessing who she will be covered by this year, for the fifth year in succession.

"Well, would you go anywhere else but Snitzel? Close your eyes and go to Snitzel. She will be married to him until Kingdom come, I'd say," Messara says.

Yearning, who included among her ownership is Arrowfield, Peter Collier and agent Andrew Williams, was tried in the Percy Sykes Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) as a juvenile and it was not until her third run back this campaign before she broke through for her first win but Messara remained confident in her ability.

"We just took our time with her because being out of that mare, Rising Romance, she was never going to be precocious even though she had Snitzel blood in her," he said.

"I always looked at her as a Guineas and Oaks filly and she's achieved part of it now. We are happy with what we've got, we won't be greedy, but if she stays well she can go one step further."

Rising Romance has a yearling colt by Snitzel and is due to foal again to the champion Arrowfield sire.

Extreme Warrior stamps himself a serious Coolmore contender after Blue Sapphire romp

Extreme Warrior (3 c Extreme Choice - Heart Of Thrills by Show A Heart) has rocketed to the top of betting for the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) after an emphatic performance at Caulfield even if the manner of the victory left co-trainer Mick Price in a quandary about how to turn around the fortunes of his high-profile stablemate Profiteer (Capitalist).

Yesterday's Blue Sapphire Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m), an audition for the "stallion-making" Coolmore down the Flemington straight on Derby Day, saw one-time Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) fancy Extreme Warrior dent the spring hopes of his rivals including Profiteer.

"A quinella is a quinella and they both ran well," said Price, who completed the Blue Sapphire-Coolmore double with Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) in 2016.

"I've just got to keep thinking about Profiteer, but Extreme Warrior was very good.

"If these are the horses that are going to the Coolmore and this is the race that you use, why wouldn't you be confident about Extreme Warrior?"

"He stood up and stood up very strongly. He wasn't challenged and ran a strong 1200 metres and will turn up in the Coolmore."

Profiteer was allowed to cruise to the lead without much pressure from barrier two under Jye McNeil as rival jockeys Luke Currie on Ranveer (Winning Rupert) ($17) and Damian Lane on Scissor Step (Toronado) ($11) chose not to attempt to cross the sprinter early.

His stablemate Extreme Warrior settled behind the pace and, as Profiteer kicked clear, the gap opened and the lightly raced colt exploded to score by three and three-quarter lengths. Continued on page 7>>

<< Continued from page 6 Profiteer was good enough to hold second, with Minsk Moment (I Am Invincible) another three and a quarter lengths away in third.

Price and his co-trainer Mick Kent Jnr had added ear muffs and a cross-over noseband to Profiteer yesterday in order to help him relax after being taken on in the A J Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) last month when finishing two and a half lengths behind The Everest (1200m) contender Wild Ruler (Snitzel).

The senior member of the training partnership has not given up hope of Profiteer being a force in the Coolmore.

"Let's hope the stablemate is going to go up and up and up, and that Profiteer has been beaten by a very smart horse," Price said.

"There's a little bit of work to do on that one though but I certainly don't want to give up because the Coolmore is worth so much being a stallion.

"I'll be no doubt thinking about this at 1am tomorrow sitting bolt upright."

While the owners of Profiteer may be scratching their heads, it is not the case for the connections of Extreme Warrior, including Rosemont Stud's Anthony Mithen and Nigel Austin who bought into the colt shortly before his two-start summer campaign when he was runner-up in the Blue Diamond Preview (C&G) (Listed, 1000m) and fifth in the Prelude (Gr 3, 1100m).

Extreme Warrior, who was unable to get to the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) in February, returned from a lengthy spell with a four-and-a-quarter-length maiden win at Echuca on October 1 and backed it up with an even more impressive effort yesterday.

He is the $5 favourite for the Coolmore after being as much as $81 prior to the Blue Sapphire.

But Rosemont's belief in Extreme Warrior may not come as a surprise given they outlaid $1.2 million for his half-sister by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) at this year's Inglis Easter Yearling Sale. She has been named Skidamarink but has not yet been sent to a trainer.

The valuable Extreme Warrior, meanwhile, is a half-brother Listed winner Thrillster (Starspangledbanner) and the stakes-placed Free Thrills (Unencumbered), with the trio all out of grand producer Heart Of Thrills (Show A Heart), herself a three-quarter sister to Gotta Have Heart and fellow stakes winner Crossyourheart, the dam of Group 3 winner Swear (Redoute's Choice).

Heart Of Thrills, who was purchased by Steve Morley Bloodstock for $200,000 at the 2018 Inglis Australian Broodmare Sale, had a colt on September 2 by champion sire Written Tycoon (Iglesia) after being given a year off in 2019.

AUSTRALIA

18 for Snitzel

Four-time champion stallion Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) sired his 18th Group 1 winner yesterday as his daughter Yearning (3 f ex Rising Romance by Ekraar) took out the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Caulfield. The Team Hawkes-trained three-year-old stayed on strongly to defeat Elusive Express (Jakkalberry) by a length with Barb Raider (Rebel Raider) another length and three-quarters back in third. Bred and co-owned by Arrowfield Stud, the filly is the first foal out of 2014 Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Rising Romance (Ekraar) and her unraced second foal - a colt now named Magic (Snitzel) - was purchased by Team Hawkes for a whopping $2.5 million at this year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, while the mare produced another colt by Snitzel in 2020 and again was served by the son of Redoute's Choice (Danehill) last October. Snitzel stands for a fee of $165,000 (inc GST).

Four for Extreme Choice

The Newgate Farm-based stallion Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) was provided with his fourth stakes winner on yesterday as the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Extreme Warrior (3 c ex Heart Of Thrills by Show A Heart) led home in a quinella for the stable in the Blue Sapphire Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield. The three-year-old colt effortlessly pulled clear in the final stages to beat Profiteer (Capitalist) by three and a quarter lengths. Minsk Moment (I Am Invincible) was a further three and a quarter lengths back in third. Bred by Winjana Park, Extreme Warrior was purchased by Price and agent Dermot Farrington for $160,000 at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling

Sale from the Glenlogan Park draft. The colt joins last season's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Stay Inside, Group 2 scorer Tiger Of Malay and stakes winner Xtremetime as the stallion's other black type winners. Extreme Choice stands at Newgate Farm for a private fee.

13 for Pride Of Dubai

In winning the Ladies' Day Vase (Gr 3, 1600m) at Caulfield yesterday, the Symon Wilde-trained Sirileo Miss (4 m ex She's Sirius by Galileo) became the 13th individual stakes winner for the Coolmore Stud-based sire Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry). The four-year-old mare stayed on bravely to beat Foxy Frida (Foxwedge) by a neck with Harmony Rose (Glass Harmonium) the same distance away in third. A winner of four of her previous eight career starts, Sirileo Miss was purchased by her trainer for $60,000 at the 2019 Inglis Premier Yearling Sale from the Miranda Park draft and is out of dual winner She's Sirius (Galileo), making her a half-sister to six winners, including the stakes-placed Sophia's Choice (Fastnet Rock). Pride Of Dubai is standing at Coolmore Stud for a fee of $22,000 (inc GST).

Shorter trips suit Sirileo Miss

Last season, Sirileo Miss finished third in the Auraria Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) at Morphettville then followed that up with a fifth-place finish in the Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) in May and connections' decision to keep her at shorter distances this season paid off yesterday in the Ladies' Day Vase. Linda Meech, who rode the mare to victory in the mile race yesterday, said: "I'd probably go a mile again with the way she was wanting to get on with it. I've got a lot of faith in Symon, I've ridden a lot of winners for him and what he says goes."

Two in a row for Rhinoceros

The David and Emma-Lee Browne-trained Rhinoceros (Vadamos) notched his second win in as many starts and third overall when he landed a Benchmark 70 (1600m) race at Caulfield yesterday. The colt followed his last-start victory at Moonee Valley when he posted a nose win over Audrey Girl (Fastnet Rock) with Cheerful Moment (Mongolian Khan) the same distance away in third. David Browne said the colt could now run in the Carbine Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Flemington on October 30, but also did not rule out the three-year-old returning to New Zealand for the Levin Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) in March. "We will keep it open but possibly that (Carbine) is where we will head. We will see how he pulls up and make a plan from there," the winning co-trainer said. "Doing what he has done here I think he could be a big chance in a race like the Levin Classic in March if we give him a break. It's just a matter of how long we push on now."

Extreme Choice filly Espiona impresses

Chris Waller looks to have yet another exciting prospect on his hands, in the shape of Espiona (Extreme Choice), who broke her maiden at her first attempt in the Admire Mars at Arrowfield Maiden Plate (1200m) at Warwick Farm yesterday. The three-year-old filly scooted clear to beat stablemates Arranmore (Astern) and Lady Piaf (I Am Invincible) by three and a half lengths and five lengths respectively. "He (Waller) could easily have taken her to the races because she is a machine. (But) they put her out, brought her back and obviously she's going to be a 'goodie' to play around with," said winning jockey James McDonald. "She just oozes so much class and when I asked her to accelerate, it felt like I was on good ground."

The filly was purchased by Star Thoroughbreds and Randwick Bloodstock Agency for $190,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in 2020 from the Torryburn Stud draft.

Duais wins Coongy on way to Caulfield Cup

In winning the Coongy Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) at Caulfield yesterday, Duais (Shamus Award) will now be out to break a hoodoo of more than 120 years when she lines up in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) on Saturday. Duais - who landed last season's Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) - defeated Wentwood (Pour Moi) by a head with Floating Artist (Nathaniel) a short-head away third. Since 1879, only two horses have won the Coongy Cup and then gone on to win the Caulfield showpiece - both in the late 1800s - while the closest a horse has come in the modern era was 1996 runner-up Circles Of Gold (Marscay). "I don't think she'd blow a candle out at the minute. She's very fit and seems to have pulled up well and we'll go in three days' time," winning jockey

Michael Dee said. "She's adaptable and doesn't pull but she travels nicely on the bridle and she's there when you ask." Duais will jump from barrier 3 in Saturday's Group 1 at Caulfield.

Incentivise drawn wide in Cup

Caulfield Cup favourite Incentivise (Shamus Award) will have to overcome a wide barrier if he is to add a third Group 1 to his burgeoning record on Saturday after he drew stall 20 (18 without emergencies). Last-start Herbert Power Stakes (Gr 2, 2400m) winner Delphi (Galileo) will start alongside the son of Shamus Award (Snitzel) in the Group 1. Last Saturday's Might And Power Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) runner-up Nonconformist (Rebel Raider) was also drawn wide in 16. Meanwhile, Metropolitan Handicap (Gr 1, 2400m) scorer Montefilia (Kermadec) has drawn gate 12.

Moody full of confidence with Incentivise

Trainer Peter Moody is confident his stable star Incentivise can provide him with his first win in the Caulfield Cup when he lines up in the Group 1 on Saturday, where he is likely to go off the short-price favourite. The five-year-old gelding goes into the race with the best form, having landed the Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on September 11, while he was last seen taking out the Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on October 2. "You never think you're going to get a good horse like this regardless if you've been in it five minutes or 35 years, I'm very grateful for the opportunity," Moody told Racing.com. "He's four-from-four on Soft ground in Queensland and one of those was on a Slow 7, albeit in lesser grade, so we take heart from that, he seems a pretty bulletproof type of horse."

Rain dance paying off for Quick Thinker

Connections of Quick Thinker (So You Think) were hoping for a wet forecast ahead of the Caulfield Cup on Saturday and their wish is coming true. The Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman-trained Group 1 winner appreciates rain-affected going and, after consulting with the five-year-olds owners OTI Racing, the Cambridge handlers have decided to take their chance in the race. "We were a little bit nervous to bring him down to Caulfield because the track can be very firm there," Forsman told SENTRY. "Given the forecast, we just have to hope that the weather people have got it right. He would need good rain the day before and the day of (the race) for him to come into his own, and there is the potential for that to happen." Quick Thinker's biggest victories to date have come on heavy and soft tracks, including the Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) and Chairman's Quality (Gr 2, 2600m).

Caulfield Sprint on cards for Curran

Talented sprinter Curran (Night Of Thunder) will attempt to add the first stakes win to his CV when he runs in the Caulfield Sprint (Gr 2, 1000m) on Saturday. The Lyn Tolson and Leonie Proctor-trained gelding made his seasonal debut with a victory in the 55 Second Challenge Handicap (955m) at Moonee Valley and, while Saturday's Group 2 is a step up in class, his co-trainers are confident he can take the race in his stride. "He's an honest horse, I couldn't be happier with him," Proctor told Racing.com. "He had to prove himself this preparation. We brought him back in to see how he'd measure up and, looking at the times and how he did it, he seems to have measured up this preparation. We didn't want to go straight to the 1200 with him, so we opted to put a nom in for this, if it doesn't look right, we'll go to a 1000-metre (race) at Moonee Valley next, the following week."

Cummings comfortable with fresh Libertini

Anthony Cummings believes that Libertini (I Am Invincible) can become the first mare to win The Everest (1200m) when she takes her chance in the $15 million race at Randwick on Saturday. The daughter of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) will be having her first run of her preparation having not been sighted since her eighth-placed effort in the TJ Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) on April 10. Libertini emerged from a recent barrier trial lame and Cummings has been racing against the clock to get on top of her feet issues, but he is comfortable the battle is won. "The reality is that right now, we're just about there. (Tuesday's) gallop was very good, her recovery was very good, and she trotted off afterwards better than she has in a month," Cummings said. "I think we are where we need to be, both in condition and soundness and they're key elements if you're going to try to win a race like The Everest." Libertini is running in Aquis' slot for the race, for which she has been drawn in barrier eight.

Melbourne, Michael Costa decided to turn his attention to the St Leger Stakes (2600m) at Randwick on Saturday for his Grafton Cup (Listed, 2350m) winner Purrfect Deal (Dundeel). The Gold Coast trainer was hoping to take the mare to Victoria but was forced to rejig her program when she emerged from a last-start third at the Gold Coast with a bruised foot. "We had the St Leger pencilled in, but we would have loved to have had a perfect preparation and got her to The Bart Cummings in Melbourne," Costa said. "But there were no flights and she's quite a light filly, it would have been too tough on her to float her down. She is quite high maintenance as well, so it's a bit difficult to hand the reins over to someone else. We've just decided to have a hit-and-run mission with the St Leger and she will probably have a decent spell after this."

Victory Vein Plate deleted

Saturday's Victory Vein Plate (1000m), a $130,000 race at Randwick for two-year-olds which also carried a $38,500 BOBS Silver bonus, was deleted by Racing NSW yesterday after a lack of acceptances. It forced Racing NSW to split the Benchmark 78 Handicap (1400m) into two races to ensure a ten-event card for the Everest meeting. The Victory Vein Plate received 12 nominations but come acceptance time yesterday, the field dropped to just six acceptances, which led to Racing NSW axing the juvenile race, which would have been used as a lead-up to the $1 million Golden Gift (1100m) at Rosehill on November 6.

Boss hoping to jag Dragonet ride

Glen Boss, James McDonald, Hugh Bowman and Kerrin McEvoy are waiting on approval from the Victorian Department of Health on whether they will be allowed to enter Victoria from New South Wales in order to take up rides in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) next Saturday. Boss is hoping he can renew his partnership with Sir Dragonet, having landed last year's edition on the son of Camleot (Montjeu). "We've got our hands tied at the moment and, having been in this position before, it's a very uneasy feeling," Boss told Racing.com. "I want to get down to Melbourne anyway, more for family reasons than anything else, to be honest." The jockey had previously applied for a permit in the spring after bagging the ride on multiple Group 1 winner Incentivise (Shamus Award), only to be told on arrival at the quarantine centre that his application had been cancelled, meaning he subsequently missed out on winning the Makybe Diva (Gr 1, 1600m) and Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m).

Nolen picks up Callsign Mav mount

Luke Nolen has been confirmed to ride three-time New Zealand Group 1 winner Callsign Mav (Atlante) in next Saturday's Cox Plate. "He's very excited, he's won a Cox Plate before on El Segundo, so (he's) looking forward to hopefully adding another one," Adrian Coyne, Nolen's manager, told Racing.com. The John Bary-trained five-year-old touched down in Australia in the early hours of yesterday morning and arrives on the back of two consecutive Group 1's in native his New Zealand. Usual rider Jonathan Riddell has had to miss out on the ride due to Covid-enforced border restrictions between the two countries. Callsign Mav is currently being housed at Danny O'Brien's yard and will have multiple gallops of the Moonee Valley track before the big race. "The Cox Plate's a really hard race to get a ride in, you've got to be riding those horses or have won on them to get a shot," Coyne said. "He'll give it a gallop at Moonee Valley on Tuesday in the lead-up to Saturday's race."

Bowman on I'm Thunderstruck

Last-start Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) winner I'm Thunderstruck (Shocking) will be ridden by Hugh Bowman when the four-year-old tackles the $7.5 million Golden Eagle (1500m) at Rosehill on October 30. Trained by Mick Price and Mick Kent Jnr-trained and raced by OTI Racing, I'm Thunderstruck was ridden by Jye McNeil in the Toorak but he will not attempt to cross the border to maintain his association with the lightly raced New Zealand-bred gelding. Bowman, who is set to apply for a border exemption to ride Mo'unga (Savabeel) in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) on Saturday week, plans to then return to Sydney for the Golden Eagle meeting at Rosehill.

Lord Of The Sky juvenile wins trial

The Nathan Doyle-trained Lord Of The Hunter - a son of Kingstar Farm's first season sire Lord Of The Sky (Danerich) - ran out a comfortable winner of an 800-metre trial at Newcastle yesterday. The two-year-old colt broke well and clearly handled the Heavy 8 conditions well as he maintained his clear advantage right to the line to post a three and a half length win over Luna Volanti (Your Song) who showed promise in second with Chipper (No Nay Never) a further three lengths back in third. A $40,000 purchase by Doyle Racing from Kingstar Farm at the Inglis Digital Sale, Lord Of The Hunter is third foal and is a half-brother to two unraced siblings; a colt by Bull Point (Fastnet Rock) and a filly by Unite And Conquer (Hinchinbrook).

Bell's Overmann tops Inglis Digital sale

Overmann (Hinchinbrook) topped the Inglis Digital October (Early) Online Sale yesterday when he sold to Jason Leung Bloodstock for $330,000. The Hawkes Racing-consigned three-year-old was offered on behalf of Alan Bell Racing and is now bound for Hong Kong. "This is the first time I've offered a Hong Kong-qualified horse on the site, one that was suitable and capable to be competitive over there and it's a significant moment for Inglis Digital, it gives more options to Hong Kong buyers," said Bell. Meanwhile, fellow Hawkes Racing-consigned gelding Saskatoon (Star Turn) made $200,000 after he was purchased by Mark Pilkington Management. The three-year-old will remain with the Hawkes stable and will race under the ownership of Seymour Bloodstock. "I was really pleased with the sale of Saskatoon as well," Bell said. "I'm pleased that he will remain with the Hawkes team, they've been very patient with him as he's later maturing but he has a lot of upside."

Standalone Cranbourne Cup to go ahead

Cranbourne Turf Club chief executive officer Neil Bainbridge announced yesterday that the Cranbourne Turf Club is to continue with its plan to host the Cranbourne Cup (Listed, 2025m) on Saturday, November 13. It will be the first time that Cranbourne will be the centre of all attention as it holds a standalone Saturday metropolitan meeting during the Spring Carnival, with prize-money for the day doubling to $1.5 million. "We can't wait to allow our loyal members and the broader community the opportunity to get back to enjoy real racing," Mr Bainbridge said. "This has not been an easy time for anyone and we recognise how fortunate we are to be able to deliver our flagship event this year." It is looking like public attendance that day will be reduced to 4,000 people. "We encourage people to book early as due to crowd capacity limits our packages will sell out fast. It will also be a condition of entry that all adults provide proof that they have been double vaccinated to be granted entry," Bainbridge said.

Nestor to step away from training

Kody Nestor has announced that he will be taking extended leave from his current role as head trainer of the operation commencing from November 15 due to personal and health reasons. The subsequent news will now mean that the stable will cease to train horses for the foreseeable future, with the 50 horses currently in the yard being rehoused. The trainer has had 664 runners in his career so far with 106 winners, 90 second placed horses and 75 placed in third, operating at a 15 per cent win strike-rate and an impressive 40 per cent place strike-rate. The trainer has amassed $2,482,220 in prize-money.

Trainer Gardner elected to Canberra Racing Club board

The 2021 Canberra Racing Club Annual General Meeting was held virtually yesterday and the three current committee members up for election were all re-elected, Duncan Edghill, Dan Carton and Ian Mackay. There were also three new committee members that were elected; Norm Gardner, Nikki Pulford and Ben McAlister. Gardner is one of the leading trainers in Canberra having been in the training and breeding business for 25 years and residing at Thoroughbred Park since 2003. Nikki Pulford is a passionate horsewoman and member of Women in Racing, while also being a leader in government. McAlister is the chief financial officer of Doma Group and has valuable experience across sales, strategy, finance, operations and risk and compliance.

Loy's Premier rant appeal dismissed, severity to be considered

The appeal of trainer Norman Loy has been dismissed with the severity of his punishment due to be considered on appeal after a hearing on October 5. Loy was originally suspended for three months after Racing NSW stewards found that he had breached AR228(a) of the Australian Rules of Racing. That rule states that "a person must not engage in: (a) conduct prejudicial to the image, interests, integrity, or welfare of racing, whether or not that conduct takes place within a racecourse or elsewhere". The rule was found to be breached when Loy wrote posts on his personal Facebook page that were deemed unacceptable. Loy maintained his plea of not guilty but was ruled against by the panel and the original ruling was upheld. Loy had until Monday, October 11 to appeal the severity of his penalty.

McLachlan has disqualification reduced

Trainer John McLachlan has had his 12-month training suspension shortened to nine months and two weeks after pleading guilty to the charges brought against him at a hearing on Thursday, October 7. McLachlan was charged with a breach of AR 229(1)(a) of the Australian Rules of Racing. That rule states that "a person must not (a) engage in any dishonest, corrupt, fraudulent, improper or dishonourable action or practice in connection with racing". He was found to have breached that rule after a horse in his care, Aidydoodee (Ambidexter), suffered a fatal fracture and fell while attending a jump-out. This came after the trainer had gained knowledge that the horse was suffering from lameness and needed further attention to treat it. Originally given a suspension of 12 months, the ban was reduced given McLachlan's guilty plea and previous clean record. The ban began on October 7 and will end on July 21, 2022.

NEW ZEALAND

Maiden Group 1 shot for Cameron

Cambridge trainer Catherine Cameron is looking forward to having her first Group 1 runner at Hastings, but unfortunately she won't be able to be trackside to experience it due to Covid-19 restrictions. Cameron will saddle British-bred Cheval Prometteur (Declaration Of War) in the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m), who suffered a knee injury while in training in Hong Kong. He subsequently underwent rehab under the guidance of Cameron and made an immediate impression on the track in New Zealand, winning two and placing in three of his first five starts. He then suffered a stress fracture in a cannon bone when preparing for the Jarden Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) last year and underwent another round of rehab prior to his race day return in June. "He had four months out and he rehabbed at Margaret Park again, which he did when he got back from Hong Kong," Cameron said. "He was there for about six weeks on the treadmill, and he has been with us at Cambridge since April."

Filly Art De Triomphe to tackle colts and geldings in Barneswood Farm

Trainer Andrew Carston will get a fair idea of whether he should press on to the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) next month with last-start Canterbury Belle Stakes (Listed, 1200m) winner Art De Triomphe (Vadamos) after she takes on the boys in the Barneswood Farm Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Ashburton on Saturday. "We will be a lot wiser on Saturday afternoon as to how we fit in with the boys, but the 1,000 Guineas is still our number one target," Carston said. "I am really happy with my filly but it is definitely a step up this week. I Wish I Win is a Group 1 performer so he has got to be a big chance. I have had four weeks just to keep her ticking over. She is a filly who doesn't take a lot of work but her work on the course proper at Riccarton on Tuesday was outstanding, so I am really happy with where we are at."

Van Dyk takes charge of Prima Park

It's an exciting time in Kelly Van Dyk's life, with the Waikato horsewoman taking over sole charge of Prima Park, an equine operation established by her parents, Leighton and Louise Van Dyk. Established in 2010, Prima Park has had great success at both the yearling and ready to run sales over the last decade, with the highlight being the sale of subsequent dual Champion Hong Kong Sprinter of the Year Beat The Clock (Hinchinbrook) at the New Zealand Bloodstock's 2015 Ready to Run Sale for NZ$200,000. Van Dyk will be selling her first draft at the upcoming New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run Sales. "I have taken over Prima Park as a sole director within the last few months, so that is really exciting," Van Dyk said. "This draft at the Ready to Run Sale, as well as the Yearling Sales next year, will be the first that I offer under my own name, but I have kept with Prima Park, our brand and our established business. It was important to keep the name and reputation that we have worked hard to establish."

HK: Happy Valley called off

Yesterday's race meeting at Happy Valley Racecourse was cancelled by the Hong Kong Jockey Club due to the tropical cyclone warning that the area had received. With poor weather conditions, the Club said that it would be difficult to have horse movement and the transportation of 8,000 employees that is required on race days. The Club also said that it would plan to seek approval by the Hong Kong Government to hold a race meeting on December 29.

21 for Australia

Coolmore Stud resident Australia (Galileo) chalked up his 21 individual stakes winner yesterday as the Andrew Balding-trained Goolwa (3 f ex Pivotalia by Pivotal) landed the Beckford Stakes (Listed, 1m 6f) at Bath. The three-year-old filly beat Brunnera (Dubawi) by half a length with Sacred Rhyme (Lope De Vega) another length and three-quarters away in third. Purchased by Mimi Wadham and Violet Hesketh of WH Bloodstock for €50,000 at the Goffs November Foal Sale in 2018, Goolwa was then snapped up by her trainer for €50,000 at the Goffs Orby Yearling Sale the following year. The filly is out of winning Pivotal (Polar Falcon) mare Pivotalia, making her a half-sister to Group 3 winner OnenightIdreamed (Footstepsinthesand) and two other winners, while she is a three-quarter sister to winning juvenile Scriptwriter (Churchill). Australia's 21 stakes winners include four elite-level winners; Broome, Order Of Australia, Mare Australis and Galileo Chrome. The stallion stands at Coolmore Stud in Ireland for a fee of €25,000 (approx. AU$39,246).

22 for Churchill

Lamialady (2 f ex Eager Beaver by Duke Of Marmalade) provided Coolmore Stud shuttler Churchill (Galileo) with his 22nd individual winner when she comfortably broke her maiden in the Premio Okkaido (1500m) at Varese yesterday. Trained by Alduino Botti and ridden by Dario Vargiu, the two-year-old filly ran out a three and a quarter length winner over Damnatro Memoriae (Starspangledbanner) with Yellowstone Boy (Equiano) a further two and a half lengths back in third. Bred by Horizon Bloodstock, Lamialady was a knocked down £6,000 (approx. AU$11,000) to Stefano Botti from Malcolm Bastard's consignment at the Goffs UK Breeze Up Sale in April this year. She is a second foal out of winning mare Eager Beaver (Duke Of Marmalade), who is a half-sister to multiple Listed winner Windhoek (Cape Cross). Churchill stands at Coolmore's Jerrys Plains base for a fee of $22,000 (inc GST) for the 2021 season.

SAF: Shadwell-bred winner for Deep Field

Short-priced favourite Al Muthana (Deep Field) scored his third win at Vaal on Tuesday for trainer Mike de Kock to make it three wins in seven starts for the Deep Field (Northern Meteor) gelding. A Shadwell homebred, the four-year-old is a tenth foal of Group 2-winning mare El Daana (Redoute's Choice) and is a half-brother to Group 2 winner Wawail (Lonhro). El Daana was a $900,000 Inglis Easter purchase for the Shadwell operation in 2006 and was subsequently sold to Paul Willetts Bloodstock for $120,000 at the Shadwell Dispersal at the Magic Millions National. Wawail was also sold to Paul Willetts at the same sale for $150,000. El Daana has a yearling filly by Lonhro (Octagonal) that made $150,000 at the Magic Millions Weanling Sale and her two year-old filly by Astern (Medaglia D'Oro) made $200,000 at the Inglis Premier and was purchased by Dodmark Thoroughbreds.

UK: Poetic Flare retired to Shadai Stallion Station

The Jim Bolger-trained Poetic Flare (Dawn Approach) has been retired from racing and will take up stud duties at the Shadai Stallion Station in Japan next year. The three-year-old was a notable absentee at the five-day confirmation stage for the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Ascot on Saturday. A homebred, who ran in the colours of Bolger's wife Jackie, won five of his 11 races and earned £1,048,463 (approx. AU$1,945,087) in prize-money. After winning a maiden and a Group 3 as a two-year-old, his remarkable three-year-old season began with him winning the 2,000 Guineas Trial Stakes (Listed, 7f) before landing the UK 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) at Newmarket. A disappointing run in France was followed by a second in the Irish 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) just six days later before he then cruised to success in the St James's Palace Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Royal Ascot. Consistent runs then followed in Sussex Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) and the Prix Jacques le Marois (Gr 1, 1m) before his final effort when third in the Irish Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f).

Maher snaps up Lope De Vega colt at Tattersalls

BY ALEX WILTSHIRE | @ANZ_NEWS

Champion Victorian trainer Ciaron Maher made his presence felt during the final session of Book 2 at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale yesterday when he teamed up with John Foote and Kern and Lillington Association to purchase a colt by Lope De Vega (Shamardal) for 100,000 guineas (approx AU$185,091).

Catalogued as Lot 1108 and offered by Knockainey Stud, the colt is out of the Group 3-placed mare We'll Go Walking (Authorized), making him a half-brother to Metier (Mastercraftsman), who won once on the flat, but is now better known for his exploits over hurdles.

Further afield, the colt's third dam is Listed winner Speirbhean (Danehill) and she in turn produced six winners, headed by unbeaten dual Group 1 winner and former Darley shuttler Teofilo (Galileo), while she is also the dam of Group 2 scorer Poetic Charm (Dubawi) and Bean Feasa (Dubawi), whose best win came at Group 3 level.

Based at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland, Lope De Vega shuttled to the now defunct Patinack Farm for four seasons until 2015. The son of Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) has proved successful in Australia, siring 15 stakes winners in the country, headed by four Group 1 winners, Santa Ana Lane, Vega Magic, Vega One and Gytrash, who will shoot for Everest (1200m) glory this weekend.

Later in the afternoon, Victorian-based syndicators First Light Racing joined forces with co-trainers Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young and Howson and Houldsworth Bloodstock to purchase a filly by Aga Khan Stud stallion Siyouni (Pivotal), paying Barton Stud 85,000 guineas (approx AU$157,383) for the youngster.

Catalogued as Lot 1123, the filly is out of the placed Redoute's Choice (Danehill) mare Wynola, while further back this is the same family as Group 1 winner Turtle Bowl (Dyhim

Lot 1108 Lope De Vega - We'll Go Walking colt

KNOCKAINEY STUD

Diamond), Group 2 scorer Turtle Bow (Turtle Island) and Age Of Aquarius (Galileo), who won at Group 3 level.

It was no surprise to see First Light Racing and Busuttin and Young make a play for the filly, having enjoyed success with another daughter of the stallion in the shape of See You In Spring, who has won three of her six starts headed by victory in last season's Without Fear Stakes (Listed, 1050m).

See You In Spring is one of two stakes winners in Australia for Siyouni, with Group 2 Aylmerton the other.

At the time of going to press, a colt by Little Avondale Stud shuttler Time Test (Dubawi) was leading the way at the third and final session of Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale yesterday after SackvilleDonald - who were signing the docket on behalf of King Power Racing - purchased the youngster for 400,000 guineas (approx. AU$740,249).

Catalogued as Lot 1193, the colt is out of the winning Rainbow Quest (Blushing Groom) mare Aurelia, making him a half-brother to four winners, headed by Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) placegetter Harlequeen (Canford Cliffs).

Further back the colt's second dam, Listed-placed Fern (Shirley Heights), is the dam of Frangy (Sadler's Wells), who in turn produced US Grade 1 scorer Forte Dei Marmi (Selkirk) and stakes-winning duo Savarain (Rainbow Quest) and Wallis (King's Best).

Fern is also the granddam of stakes-winning trio Nashmiah (Elusive City), Ighraa (Tamayuz) and Streets Ahead (Beat Hollow).

The colt was offered by Joe Foley's Ballyvolane Stud, having been purchased by Foley, under the guise of Otilia, for 56,000 guineas (approx. AU$103,634) at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale in 2020, making him the most expensive foal by the stallion last year.

"He has been very popular this week, he had 20 'vets', he is an amazing horse, he has never missed a beat all week," said Foley.

"Since we have had him he has been amazing. He is a special horse, the best we have ever had. His attitude, his presence, he is a 'wow' horse. He was a lovely, quality straightforward foal, very well produced by the National Stud - there is a reason he was the dearest Time Test foal.

"There are some that are nice foals who come back as nice yearlings, but he has done better than we thought. It has developed and he has improved the whole way through."

Foley is a regular pinhook buyer, but this debut venture under Otilia was slightly different.

"Otilia is myself and three friends, it is the first one we have pinhooked together. We wanted to take a punt on the stallion and we knew he'd cost a few quid. We thought that, if he did not work out, with three of us involved the pain wouldn't be too much. It was a fair throw for him as a foal, we were taking a punt on him as a stallion, but sons of Dubawi have done well.

"Time Test has had a great year, he looks very good, his stats are good - I will definitely be using him next year! He will be very popular with breeders."

Time Test has enjoyed instant success with his first runners, siring nine winners headed by four stakes winners, which include Group 3-winning pair Romantic Time and Rocchigiani.

Earlier on in the afternoon, a colt by Haunui Farm shuttler Ribchester (Iffraaj) proved popular at the sale, with the Hong Kong Jockey Club eventually parting with 350,000 guineas (approx. AU$647,640) for the youngster.

Catalogued as Lot 1099 and offered as part of the Barton Stud draft, the colt is out of winning Raven's Pass (Elusive Quality) mare Vitello, the dam of Andreas Vesalius (Caravaggio), who has one once and also placed at Group 3 level.

Further back the colt hails from the same family as Listed winner Ghyraan (Cadeaux Genereux).

Ribchester began his covering duties in the southern hemisphere at Darley's Kelvinside base, before being relocated to Haunui Farm in 2020 to fill the void left by his sire Iffraaj (Zafonic) after he ceased shuttling duties.

Ribchester - who has sired 13 first-crop winners in the northern hemisphere - is standing at the New Zealand nursery for a fee of NZ$15,000 (plus GST).

Late on in the session, Craig Rounsefell of Boomer Bloodstock paired up with David Redvers to buy a filly by Tweenhills Stud shuttler Zoustar (Northern Meteor) for 100,000 guineas (approx AU$185,091).

Catalogued as Lot 1233 and offered by New England Stud, the filly is out of Listed-placed Compton Place (Indian Ridge) mare Button Moon, making her a half-sister to two winners.

Further back this is the same family as multiple Group 1 winner Battaash (Dark Angel) and Group 2 winner and now Shadwell Stud-based sire Tasleet (Showcasing).

The daughter of Zoustar was one of two purchases for Boomer yesterday, with the agent also teaming up with DB Racing to purchase a colt by Lope De Vega for 100,000 guineas (approx. AU$185,091).

Catalogued as Lot 1216 and offered by the Castlebridge Consignment, the colt is out of winning Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) mare Blue Paraiba, who is herself a daughter of Group 1 winner Germance (Silver Hawk).

Tuesday's session saw 218 yearlings change hands for a gross of 18,560,500 guineas (approx. AU$36,067,997) at an average of 85,140 guineas (approx. AU$157,561), which represents a marginal 1 per cent rise of the 84,448 guineas (approx. AU$156,281) average figure recorded on the second day 12 months ago.

The auction house reported a clearance rate of 88 per cent, compared to 85 per cent at the same point last year, while the median finished at 65,000 guineas (approx. AU$126,328), a healthy rise of 25 per cent compared with the 52,000 guineas (approx. AU$96,232) recorded on day two of Book 2 in 2020.

ROAD TO THE SPRING CARNIVAL

Gold Trip working at Werribee

ANZ Bloodstock News will be following the spring carnival fortunes of the Jamie Lovett and Luke Murrell-owned Australian Bloodstock, who are no strangers to major race success having won the Melbourne Cup with Protectionist in 2014.

Each week we will speak to Lovett on the progress of their horses and follow their journey from Europe to contest Australia's premier races.

We couldn't be more pleased with Gold Trip, his last two pieces of work at Werribee were exceptional.

We're obviously under a fair bit of scrutiny in Melbourne at the moment with the horse having been found to be lame after he arrived off the plane just over two weeks ago, but he's in really good order now.

I started this feature a few weeks ago by fully supporting these new veterinary measures, and I still do. I firmly believe that something needed to be done to combat the rising injury and fatality records in our feature spring races. But, like most things after the first year, it will need to be reviewed.

As it currently stands with Gold Trip, we have a panel of four vets from all around the world that have passed the horse fit following his CT scans and scintigraphy tests and it's just the Racing Victoria vet that we have to get over the last hurdle with, and they're looking over the horse on a bi-daily basis before inspecting the horse again a few days before the Cox Plate.

At every turn he passes each test and, when diagnostically there's been shown to be nothing wrong with the horse, I think sometimes we have to let the horse be a horse.

I believe the horse was just a bit stiff after the flight. Lee Horner is working with him, he's a good friend of mine, and he says he's continued to improve everyday. He glided across the turf in his last piece of work. And that would be like anyone after getting off an aircraft and you're freed up, you start to move a lot better.

I also think the process needs a review for the good of the Spring Carnival. The difficulties of Covid-19 are there, but only a handful of international horses have come over for this year's carnival and, having lived through it this year, it's certainly not, in my view, sustainable.

As it stands it will only serve to continue to shrink the carnival. Unless we want to undo 30 years of building an international spring carnival, we need to review the process.

The important thing is that the horse is well and we haven't missed a beat. The Cox Plate is actually turning into a really interesting race. Anamoe is a world class three-year-old and presents that real X-factor, while Zaaki, where there was previously conjecture that he might be unbeatable, his defeat last week now opens the race up.

Then there's the exposed horses we all know such as Verry Elleegant. It's going to be a great race and our bloke is sitting on the fourth line of betting and we think he's well entitled to be there. From what we've seen in his gallops there's no reason to think we haven't got the right horse.

He will head to Moonee Valley on Saturday where he'll have his first gallop at the track and that will be important for his preparation, as you then get a feel as to how he handles it and whether he's going to be a horse best placed outside of horses or whether he's going to relax around horses. It's a bit of a unique course if they haven't raced there before, but he's such a dude that I'd be surprised if anything fazes him.

We left Gold Trip in the latest round of acceptances for the Melbourne Cup earlier this week and, while he'll have to run very well in the Cox Plate for us to then consider starting him in the Melbourne Cup, we'd have a serious look at it if he runs well and comes out of the race well. The one comment Ciaran (Maher) and David (Eustace) keep making about this horse is how quickly he gets his wind back. He just profiles like he runs the trip and I'm getting more and more confident that if he does end up in the Melbourne Cup he'll get the two miles.

The Kosciuszko is the race that's saved country racing

It's an exciting week for the Australian Bloodstock team and not least with Edit, who has a real chance in Saturday's Kosciuszko at Randwick. This is a race we've targeted him at since we purchased him from Gerry Harvey in New Zealand some time ago and he was given to Cody Morgan in Tamworth to ensure that he meets all the qualifying conditions. A horse has to have been under the care of a country trainer for at least five months prior to the race to be eligible.

It's a big thrill for the owners to get him into the race and I think he'll be very hard to beat. We've had a bit of rain here in Sydney and I think he'll get conditions to suit. He's racing for $1.3 million and for a horse of his grade, it's really exciting.

I think the Kosciuszko has saved country racing, I really do. The foresight of Peter V'Landys is incredible. They came up with The Everest and the accolades for that don't stop for obvious reasons, but of all the things they've done, I think this is one of the best concepts.

A lot of country stables were struggling to make ends meet and, along with prize-money increasing in the country, it has really attracted investment into those stables and every trainer in the bush, all they want to talk about is getting a runner in the 'Kosczy'.

The incredible thing about the Kosciuszko is that it funds itself. There were over 250,000 $5 tickets sold to be in with a chance of being a part of this race. It involves everyone in country racing and the race itself is a byproduct of the idea.

Australians set to reap rewards from northern hemisphere yearlings

It's interesting to see many Australians buying yearlings from northern hemisphere yearling sales these last couple of weeks and I think it's definitely a worthwhile exercise.

There's no doubt that the ability to access those northern hemisphere bloodlines makes it all worth it. You're only giving up a few months and you've only got to look at the likes of Russian Camelot to see what's possible.

The amount of money we have in our staying races is exceptional, while 80 per cent of our horses are bred to run 1000 metres. So, if you get it right, there's the opportunity for them to more than pay their way.

We stand Protectionist in Germany and so we've been supporting the Baden-Baden sale for a number of years and we've got some lovely Protectionist fillies out here in Australia which seem to be doing a good job. We quite like one in particular.

We'd have loved to have got involved with the northern hemisphere yearling market this year, but I like to see them in the flesh. With tried horses I'm comfortable buying them without being there because we do the form and get them vetted. But I'm just reluctant to spend money on yearlings without being there.

TREVOR MARSHALLSEA'S IN-DEPTH PEDIGREE ANALYSIS

TREVOR MARSHALLSEA | @ANZ_NEWS

There can be few more potent pedigrees in Australian racing at present than that of Hilal, who broke through for black-type success with a slashing win in Saturday's Stan Fox Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at Randwick.

The Team Hawkes-trained colt is from one of Emirates Park's strongest female families - one which has spawned such titans as Redoute's Choice (Danehill), and which in this case ends with an Encosta De Lago (Fairy King) mare in Hilal's dam, Salma.

Match that with a sire surely now qualified for "phenomenon" status - Fastnet Rock (Danehill) - and it's easy to see why Emirates Park is buzzing about Hilal's stud prospects, even before he contests next month's Bondi Stakes (1600m) and, likely, an autumn Guineas, when he'll seek to better a brace of Randwick Group 1 seconds last season, when beaten by the quinella pair from last Saturday's Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), Anamoe (Street Boss) and Captivant (Capitalist).

Just where is it going to stop, or even slow down, for Fastnet Rock? The Coolmore legend has been so good for so long it might be easy to take him for granted. Sometimes you have to stop and take it all in.

Hilal's Stan Fox success gave his sire a black-type double in the space of 20 minutes, after daughter Sneaky Five claimed the Thoroughbred Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield. Hilal became Fastnet Rock's 180th stakes winner worldwide, two more than Redoute's Choice, and behind only Exceed And Excel's (Danehill) 189 amongst Australian stallions. Sixty-eight of Fastnet's stakes-winners have come outside Australia, including 43 in Britain, Ireland and France.

Hilal

Still commanding Australia's equal second-highest service fee of $165,000, and still shuttling to Coolmore Ireland, the 20-year-old Fastnet Rock covers managed books these days but will still serve some 80 mares this spring, so is certain to rocket well past the 200 stakes-winners mark.

The son of the great Danehill - who holds the world record of 347 stakes winners ahead of Galileo's (Sadler's Wells) 344 - has sired 41 Group 1 winners worldwide, including the extremely rare feat for a southern hemisphere stallion of getting an English Classic winner in 2015 Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) victor Qualify.

Eight of Fastnet Rock's sons have already sired Group 1 winners, such as Foxwedge, Hinchinbrook and Smart Missile. He was fifth on the Australian broodmare sires' table last season, represented by nine stakes winners. Fastnet Rock was also fourth among Australian two-year-old sires last season.

Still, more about him later.

The process that led to Hilal being one of Emirates Park's brightest began when the stud's boss Nasser Lootah bought a yearling filly in 1994 who he named Show Dancing (Don't Say Halo). Her third dam was the great American blue hen Best In Show (Traffic Judge), dam of Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) winner Blush With Pride (Blushing Groom) and Malinowski (Sir Ivor), Ireland's champion two-year-old colt of 1975.

Best In Show also threw Show Lady (Sir Ivor) who, in turn, delivered not a great deal of racetrack note, but when put to the great Nijinsky (Northern Dancer), produced Dancing Show (USA, 1983). Here's where this family really kicked off.

Dancing Show won one out of 12 but, sent to New Zealand via France, she produced 11 foals, eight runners and seven winners. And not just any winners.

Her first named foal was Umatilla (Miswaki), who won a Group 1 - in Perth's Karrakatta Plate (Gr 1, 1200m) in 1990 - and was placed in four others in Melbourne. Umatilla, in turn, sired six Group 1 winners, including multiple top-level successes Sincero (see last week's column) and Umrum.

Just to show this was easy, for a third named foal, Dancing Show threw Hurricane Sky (Star Watch), winner of two Group 1s including the 1994 Blue Diamond (Gr 1, 1200m). Hurricane Sky, of course, went on to elite success at stud, siring four top-tier winners, including Desert Eagle and Divine Madonna, who won four each.

Dancing Show next produced her first filly, by Canny Lad (Bletchingly), who on the back of her big brothers' exploits was bought by Muzaffar Yaseen for a then-hefty $220,000 as a yearling in 1994. Shantha's Choice would recoup only $6,900 of her purchase price through a Seymour win and a Sandown second from just two starts, but how she'd repay Yaseen at stud.

For her first mating, where else would you go in 1996 but Danehill himself? The result was the colossus, Redoute's Choice.

Two years later, the same match struck gold again (or at least precious metal) in Platinum Scissors, 2002 Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner. Later came Manhattan Rain (Encosta De Lago), who won the 2009 AJC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), and has so far sired Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) and Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) heroine She Will Reign, and Whisky Baron, who won at the elite level in South Africa.

Not only was she a card-carrying blue hen, Shantha's Choice's lesser-performed produce, half-sisters to Redoute's, drew some staggering numbers at Yaseen's 2014 dispersal, such as the stakes-placed Monsoon Wedding (Danehill, for $2.3 million), and maiden winner Taste Of Heaven (Encosta De Lago, $1.5 million), who became a stakes-winning broodmare in the US before returning home, to be bought again as an 11-year-old this year for $1.6 million.

Meanwhile, after Shantha's Choice, Dancing Show had thrown a second filly, Show Dancing, the filly bought by Lootah in 1994. She won two of eight, in Sydney, but like her half-sister would prove far more valuable as a broodmare.

Her second named foal was Group 3 winner Salameh (Secret Savings, USA), but two later came Al Maher (Danehill), the 2005 Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner. Lootah maintained ownership in both. Al Maher bears the Emirates Park flag at stud, siring 36 stakes winners, including four Group 1 winners. Among them are SA Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) and Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Delicacy - who beat a rising Winx (Street Cry) to the title of Australia's top three-year-old filly in 2015 - Fat Al, who won the Epsom of 2012, and Private Eye, who won it two weeks ago.

Salameh also went to stud and threw eight named foals. Six were colts, including Big Time (Danewin), winner of the Dulcify Quality (Listed, 1500m) of 2011. One of the two fillies was Salma.

The daughter of Encosta De Lago - who was bred by Emirates Park as well - had five ordinary barrier trials before it was decided she might work best as a broodmare.

A colt by Harbour Watch (Acclamation) sold for just $50,000 at the Gold Coast in 2016. Exported to South Africa as Trojan Harbour, he won in Listed class in 2017.

Salma's second named foal, Salateen (I Am Invincible), was sold at this year's Gold Coast Broodmare Sale for $300,000 and became a Doomben winner last month. And her third is Hilal, completing this female line through Best In Show-Show Lady-Dancing Show-Show Dancing-Salameh-Salma.

"She's a nice type of mare, but the reason we sent her to Fastnet Rock is she can handle that big, stronger, physical type," Emirates Park's Bryan Carlson says of Salma, who has a "very nice" two-year-old Fastnet Rock filly in work with Team Snowden, a Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) yearling filly, and a new foal by the Emirates Park-owned Tassort (Brazen Beau), who stands at Newgate.

"It's been a remarkable family. There's Redoute's Choice, Umatilla, Hurricane Sky, Manhattan Rain and Al Maher, all up close within the last three generations. Hopefully Hilal can go to stud at Emirates in the near future and keep it going."

Encosta De Lago mares are by far Fastnet Rock's best nick by winners, with 64 (Galileo and Zabeel are next with 42 and 41), including four stakes winners. But then it's hard to go wrong with Fastnet Rock, beyond doubt one of Australia's greatest-ever stallions.

Fastnet Rock

"He's a phenomenal sire," Coolmore's Colm Santry says. "Look at the legacy he's going to leave - eight sons have left Group 1 winners already. He's a great broodmare sire, he's still a potent two-year-old sire, he's got a load of yearlings, foals being born, and pregnancies. He'll be around for a long time yet."

Current stakes-winning offspring of Fastnet Rock mares include Quantum Mechanic (Deep Field), multiple New Zealand black-type winner Need I Say More (No Nay Never), and Queen Of Dubai (Pride Of Dubai), who ran seventh in yesterday's Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Caulfield.

They also include two who began in Ireland before becoming stakes winners in Australia: I Am Superman (Footstepsinthesand) and Harpo Marx (by Galileo out of exported Coolmore Stud Stakes winner Nechita).

And while Fastnet Rock has had 14 stakes winners as a broodmare sire this calendar year alone, that bunch doesn't yet include Gytrash. That son of Lope De Vega (Shamardal) could, however, give his damsire quite the boost - as if one were needed - in Saturday's Everest.

"In the modern era you could genuinely say Fastnet is the most successful Australian sire to shuttle to the northern hemisphere," Santry says.

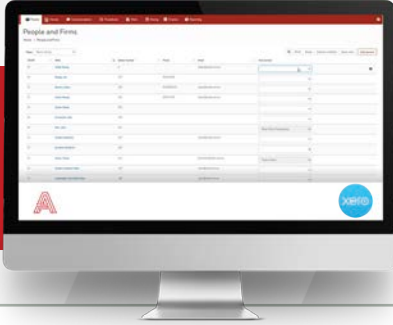

"And when you consider how hard it is for shuttle stallions to break into their opposite hemisphere, he's done amazingly well, and done it all over the world."

Margins: 1 lens, 1.8 lens. Time: 1:37.54 (last 600m)

Betting: $26.00, $9.00, $7.50

Then followed: Literary Magnate (AUS), Fortunate Kiss (AUS), Hinged (AUS), Queen of Dubai (AUS), Zouzarella (AUS), Cuban Link (AUS), Bon's a Pearla (AUS), Achira (AUS), Heresy (AUS), Swift Witness (AUS), last.

Analysis: YEARNING, a daughter of the 2014 ATC Australian Oaks winner Rising Romance, appreciated the solid pace here and proved superior over the closing stages to take out this Group 1 feature. The progressive filly, winner of a Newcastle maiden (1400m) three starts back on September 17, settled in last place in the 13-runner field and remained there until nearing the home turn. She went widest of all on straightening and then came with a powerful late bid to score an impressive victory. Elusive Express settled in second last place, improved from the 600-metre mark, moved up well 300 metres out and briefly hit the front at the 100 metres and then fought well for (length) second. Barb Raider had a nice trip in fourth place on the rails from her good barrier (3) and then fought well in the straight to take the minor placing. Literary Magnate settled midfield, moved up at the turn and fought well in the straight to finish (3.7 lengths) fourth. Fortunate Kiss settled near the tail of the field, on the rails, before saving ground on the inner at the turn. But she was blocked near the 200m before running home well over the latter stages when clear for (3.8 lengths) fifth in a promising effort. The favourite Hinged held on well for sixth (4.1 lengths) after being wide while the leader Queen Of Dubai faded late for seventh after running a bold race at a fast tempo. [KB]

Margins: 0.2 lens, 0.1 lens. Time: 2:03.28 (last 600m)

Betting: $11.00, $16.00, $1.50

Then followed: Zayydani (NZ), Pappalino (FR), Secret Blaze (AUS), Double You Tee (AUS), Constantinople (IRE), Sherwood Forest (AUS), last.

Analysis: DUAIS, an impressive winner of the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) at Eagle Farm in June, recaptured her form at her third run back with a timely victory in the lead-up to Saturday's Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m). She settled nicely for Michael Dee in second last place in the nine-runner field before tracking up behind runners nearing the turn. She then finished well and did best in the run to the post to score a narrow but good win. Wentwood remained in last place before improving (deep) rounding the turn. He then kept running on solidly for (head) second in a promising second-up effort. The favourite Floating Artist, a winner of his previous three in succession, went to the front and travelled comfortably at a moderate tempo. He was challenged approaching the turn and fought quite well for a close-up third, albeit after appearing to have had every chance. Zayydani had a nice trip in fourth place on the rails, got into clear running at the 200 metre pole before holding on well for (length) fourth placing while Pappalino held on quite well for (3 lengths) fifth. Betting: $4.80, $3.30, $3.80

Then followed: Scissor Step (AUS), Growl (AUS), Cardinal Gem (AUS), Prowling (AUS), Port Louis (AUS), Ranveer (AUS), last.

Analysis: EXTREME WARRIOR, who showed talent with seconds in Listed class at his first two starts here last season, followed his easy first-up win in a three-year-old maiden (1100m) at Echuca on October 1, with an easy win in this Group 3 sprint. He settled nicely in fourth place on the rails, improved along the inner to track the leader Profiteer into the straight, went to the front at the 150 metre pole and then drew away to score most impressively. The favourite Profiteer began quite well and gradually drove through from his good barrier (2) to lead. He got a break on turning for home but had no answer to the winner over the latter stages, battling on quite well for (3.8 lengths) second. Minsk Moment settled in seventh place (wide with cover). He was under pressure at the turn and rallied over the final stages for third. Scissor Step settled in third place, but three wide outside the leading trio, and did well in holding on for (7.5 lengths) fourth after a difficult trip while Growl made late ground for (7.6 lengths) fifth. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE Inglis Est 1867

PRIDE OF DUBAI | COOLMORE AUSTRALIA
Brilliant dual Gr.1-winning 2yo by Street Cry

Analysis: SIRILEO MISS finished her rise through the classes last season with a fifth in the Australasian Oaks at Morphettville in May and is now unbeaten in three runs this preparation, highlighting that form with her fifth win in nine starts and her first victory at stakes level here. She began well and settled nicely outside the leader. She put pressure on that runner from the 700-metre mark, got to a narrow lead at the 100 metre pole and then dug deep for a narrow but very good win. Foxy Frida settled back in tenth place from her difficult barrier (12). She improved between runners at the home turn, took a gap at the 200 metre mark and then finished well for (head) second in a good second-up effort. Harmony Rose went to the front, was pressured before the home turn and kept fighting well for a close-up third. Only Words settled in fifth place, between runners, went to third at the home turn and kept on well to finish (1.1 lengths) fourth. Starelle was sixth at the turn and fought nicely for (1.3 lengths) fifth while Ecumenical held on for (1.5 lengths) sixth after being handy on the rails all the way. [KB]
