Incentivise obliterates his rivals in the Caulfield Cup

The son of Shamus Award proves a class above to take his third Group 1 victory for trainer Peter Moody

BY ALEX WILTSHIRE | @ANZ_NEWS

The rapid rise of Incentivise (Shamus Award) hit new heights yesterday, as the Peter Moody-trained gelding proved he was the very best middle distance stayer in Australia with a breathtaking display in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m).

After breaking well from the widest barrier, Brett Prebble pushed forward on the son of Shamus Award (Snitzel), eventually settling him three wide in third position.

As the field hit the 800-metre mark, Prebble asked the gelding for his effort and he responded in impressive fashion, putting light between himself and his rivals in a matter of strides, beating Nonconformist (Rebel Raider) by three and a half lengths. Persan (Pierro) was a further length and three-quarters away in third.

Starting his career with trainer and breeder Steve Tregaea, Incentivise was beaten in his first three career starts, but has not tasted defeat since breaking his maiden at the Sunshine Coast on April 11.

After taking out six victories last season, which culminated with a win in the Tattersall's Cup (Gr 3, 2406m), the gelding was moved to Moody's Pakenham base for the new season. However, his success in the north last season did not go unnoticed by some major players within the industry, including Brae Sokolski and Ozzie Kheir buying into the horse with Tregaea also maintaining a stake in the five-year-old.

Trumpy gives Clements another Gold Cup trump card

Argentinian import Trumpy (Lizard Island) finally got off the mark at his 14th Kranji start yesterday and has in the process all but booked his ticket for the Singapore Gold Cup. Continued page 10>>

<< Continued from page 1 His connections' faith in the gelding's talents have been well-rewarded this season. Incentivise resumed this preparation with a win in the Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) after which he added a victory in the Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). His CV now makes for impressive reading; nine wins from 12 starts and prize-money earnings totalling $4,643,300.

The gelding's win is made even more impressive given he had to overcome a wide barrier draw and Moody said Prebble gave the horse a beautiful ride, sticking to the well mapped out plan.

"We weren't going to rush him, and Brett took his time," Moody said. "He gives you a little heart flutter. He hits a flat spot coming down the side, but he just kept building.

"A super effort."

The victory also provided Moody with his 56th Group 1 win, but until yesterday success in the Caulfield Cup had been one that had eluded him.

"It's unbelievable," Moody said. "Caulfield was my home for 16 or 17 years and I trained a couple of thousand winners here.

"Never this one. It's very important to win it."

Since returning to the training ranks 18 months ago following a spell on the sidelines, Moody has made an almost instant impact, but yesterday he was quick to heap praise on the people who have supported this newest chapter of his glittering career.

"I'm very grateful for the opportunity and thanks to Brae Sokolski and Ozzie Kheir," the winning trainer continued. "They planted the seed, purchased the horse and recommended that he come to my yard.

"A big thanks to Steve Tregaea, the former trainer, the owner and breeder of this horse and a big shout out to everyone in Toowoomba and the Darling Downs. This one is for you."

Prebble - who was also enjoying his first triumph in the race - is confident the horse will thrive in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) on November 2.

"I was mindful of the fact they weren't going to give him a soft lead," Prebble said.

"The way the race was run today, there was a fair bit of wind out there, and I thought I'm definitely going to get cover, even if it is on the side there for the first 1200 metres.

"He doesn't over-race, he doesn't waste his energy like some of the others do, Damien's (Oliver, on Delphi) was a bit aggressive.

"I was surprised, he came off the bridle a bit sooner than I would have liked, but I showed him the whip before the home turn and all that is telling me, is 'look out Melbourne Cup'.

"He is going to eat up the 3200 metres. He is exciting. He is probably one of the most exciting horses I've ridden."

The victory will have come as a welcome bit of good news for Sokolski and Kheir, who began their day coming to terms with the loss of their star performer Sir Dragonet (Camelot) after he broke a leg in a routine gallop at Moonee Valley as he prepared to defend his crown in next weekend's Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m).

"They say that about racing, to enjoy the highs while they are there because the lows will come around as they did this morning," Kheir told Racing.com.

"I woke to the news in the morning and I was a mess. My heart was melted and I literally couldn't think of watching a race.

"I went for a walk for about three hours to clear my head and I just couldn't stop thinking about it. We love that horse and I am going to really miss him.

"To be honest, I couldn't think of anything that could cheer me up. Nothing."

But after watching Incentivise demolish his rivals by the biggest margin since Might And Power's (Zabeel) win in 1997 edition of the Group 1, Kheir took his own advice and enjoyed the victory delivered by this emerging star of Australian racing.

"We've got a very, very special horse on our hands," Kheir said. "We will savour this moment and enjoy it. I do think this horse will become a cult hero and be something really special and be a horse that people will look back at and love watching his replays.

"I'm back. It's taken all day but I'm back. It was just such an amazing win and he's an amazing horse. I'll never forget that run today, as I'll never forget Sir Dragonet."

Bred by Tregea's Windermere Stud, Incentivise (5 g Shamus Award - Miss Argyle by Iglesia) is the eighth of nine foals out of the deceased mare Miss Argyle (Iglesia) and half-brother to Group 3 winner and Waikato Stud stallion Ardrossan (Redoute's Choice) and Queensland stakes winners Bergerac (Drumbeats) and Cheyenne Warrior (Not A Single Doubt).

Further back the gelding shares a page with Group 2 scorers Express Air (Piccolo) and Prince Of Boom (Spirit Of Boom) as well as stakes-winning duo Diamondsondinside (Iglesia) and Heaven's Deal (Spirit Of Boom).

The gelding is one of four Group 1 winners for Rosemont Stud-based sire Shamus Award, while his total stakes winners stands at 16. The stallion is standing for an increased fee of $33,000 (inc GST), having stood last season for $19,800 (inc GST).

Nature Strip makes it third time lucky as he finally scales Everest

Nature Strip

SPORTPIX

The Chris Waller-trained Nature Strip (Nicconi) gave a grandstand of spectators fresh out of lockdown something to cheer about yesterday when he finally put his Everest (1200m) ghosts to bed with a thrilling victory in the $15 million race at Randwick.

The gelding was taking aim at the lucrative sprint for the third time in his career, having run fourth in 2019, while he finished down the field in seventh in last year's edition of the 1200-metre contest.

Ridden by James McDonald, the gelding tracked a wide course to lead, before racing clear at the top of the straight. He looked to have the race at his mercy half-way down the straight, but Masked Crusader (Toronado) finished strongly and the gelding had to dig deep to repel that rival's advances, eventually beating him by a short-neck.

Eduardo (Host) was the same distance away in third, while last year's winner Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) came home in fifth - two lengths off the winner.

It was McDonald's first Everest win and the champion jockey said the straight at Randwick had never felt as long as it did yesterday.

"You have no idea, it felt like a minute," McDonald said. "When I crossed the line I thought I hung on, then Tommy (Berry on Masked Crusader) said, 'who got it?'

"It was pretty close, too close for comfort. He just showed so much grit and determination. He is a star."

It was Waller's second win in the $15 million race, having sent out now Coolmore Stud-based sire Yes Yes Yes (Rubick) to win the race in 2019 and he said this victory was up there with one of the best moments of his glittering career.

"It's right up there," Waller said. "It's just a great race. It has captured the imagination of so many people, inside racing and out and what better way to get out of Covid.

"He got the highest rated sprinter in the world for a reason and that gave me some confidence. He's probably justified it today."

In winning the race, Nature Strip chalked up his 18th victory from 33 starts - with six of them coming at top-flight level - and he has amassed $14,953,685 in prize-money.

"Last preparation we had a scope down his throat every third day," Waller said.

"Every time he raced he was bright, but after his races he'd struggle.

"He was constantly on antibiotics. You'd get him off antibiotics, ready for a race, try to get him right but it was all too much."

Waller also praised the role of McDonald, who has been Nature Strip's regular rider and a major player in teaching the once head-strong gelding to relax.

"He gets this horse to settle and it hasn't been just this week, it's been over three years and that horse just connects with him," Waller said. "Horses run for James. If he was in a Formula One car he'd be at the front of the grid."

Bred by Golden Grove Stud Farm, Nature Strip (7 g Nicconi - Strikeline by Desert Sun) is one of three winners out of Group 3-winning mare Strikeline (Desert Sun), making him a half-brother to Listed scorer The Barrister (Star Witness).

Strikeline herself is a daughter of Listed winner Strike High (Pre Emptive Strike) and she produced a further four winners, including Group 3 winner Bashful Girl (Perugino).

Having missed to multiple New Zealand champion Savabeel (Zabeel) in 2018 and 2019, Strikeline was covered by Rosemont Stud-based sire Shamus Award (Snitzel) last December.

Nature Strip is one of 23 stakes winners and the only elite-level winner for the Widden Stud-based sire Nicconi (Bianconi), who relocated to the stud's Victorian roster for the 2021 season where he is standing for a fee of $27,500 (inc GST).

Savy Yong Blonk gets her Group 1 in the Livamol Classic

The Jamie Richards-trained Savy Yong Blonk (Savabeel) added a much deserved and valuable Group 1 to her CV when she landed the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) at Hastings yesterday.

A dual Group 3 winner prior to yesterday's win, Savy Yong Blonk finished off strongly to post a short-neck win over Harlech (Darci Brahma) with Prise De Fer (Savabeel) coming home another half a length away in third.

The mare came into the race off the back of two disappointing runs in the Tazzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) and Super Seth at Waikato Stud Mile Handicap (1600m), but despite those results Richards was always keen to press on to this race.

"It has always been the plan to head to this race, but it does dent the confidence a wee bit off the back of a below par performance that she put in at Te Rapa," Richards said.

"You just have to take her on trust to get away from the gates cleanly, which she did today and Danielle (Johnson) gave her a lovely ride."

The trainer revealed the mare would now be covered by Savabeel's barnmate Super Seth (Dundeel), but is confident she can net another Group 1 before her career comes to an end.

Savy Yong Blonk

NZ RACING

"She is off to visit Super Seth and we will then race her on and hope to pick up another one (Group 1 win) if we can," the winning trainer said.

"I am absolutely thrilled she has a Group 1 now as she thoroughly deserves it."

Bred and raced by Jim and Bill Gartshore, under their Gartshore Bloodstock banner, Savy Yong Blonk has now won eight of her 27 starts and over NZ$486,000 in prize-money.

The mare is one of three winners out of unraced Pins (Snippets) mare Ampin, making her a sister to Australian Group 2 scorer Adelaide Ace and one-time winner Auron.

Ampin herself is a daughter of dual winner and New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) runner-up Ambitious (Last Tycoon) - the dam of Group 3 winner and Group 1 placed Strike The Stars (Savabeel), while further back this is also the same family as Group 3 scorer Another Dollar (Ocean Park), who finished second in the 2018 edition of the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m).

Ampin missed to Coolmore Stud shuttler Churchill (Galileo) in 2020 and she produced a filly by Darley Stud-based sire Lonhro (Octagonal) this year.

In winning yesterday's 2040-metre contest, the mare becomes the 24th individual top-flight winner for Waikato Stud's multiple champion stallion Savabeel (Zabeel) and seventh for Pins as a broodmare sire.

The victory once again exemplifies the potency of Savabeel when mated to daughters of his late barnmate Pins. The mare is now the fourth top-flight winner bred on this cross, joining Probabeel, Savvy Coup and Brambles, while daughters of Pins have produced 16 stakes winners in total when mated to Savabeel. The nick fires at a stakes winners to runners strike rate of 13 per cent.

Six-time champion New Zealand stallion Savabeel stands at the New Zealand nursery for a fee of NZ$100,000 (plus GST).

Second for Heroic Valour

Raheen Stud's Heroic Valour (Fastnet Rock) is two for two with his first-crop runners after he sired his second individual winner courtesy of the Les Ross-trained Mishani Persuasion (2 g ex Persuades by Commands), who led home stable quinella when defeating Alert State (Defcon) by a neck in the QTIS Two-Year-Old Handicap at Eagle Farm yesterday. The Helen Page-trained Hattusa (Spirit Of Boom) finished third. A homebred for Mike Cook's Mishani Enterprises, Mishani Persuasion is the fourth winner out of his dam, Persuades (Commands), a four-time winner on the track. Further back this is the family of the Group 1 placed Snow Princess (Ela-Mana-Mou), dam to stakes winners Snow Ridge (Indian Ridge) and Snow Gretel (Green Desert). The juvenile was purchased for $8,000 at the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale earlier this year when snapped up by Vaunstreet Logistics. Heroic Valour stands for a fee of $7,700 (inc GST).

Stakes double for Sebring

The late Widden Stud stallion Sebring (More Than Ready) struck for a stakes double yesterday courtesy of two fillies from his final crop, which saw his total number of stakes winners climb to 73. The first of leg of the double came at Caulfield when the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Daisies (3 f ex Tigress Lily by Snitzel) ran out an impressive winner of the Ethereal Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m), then 15 minutes later Fangirl (3 f ex Little Surfer Girl by Encosta de Lago) saluted in the Reginald Allen Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Randwick. Sebring's stakes winners are headed by six top-flight winners and he died of a heart attack in 2019.

Daisies books Oaks spot

RACING PHOTOS

Daisies was making just her fourth start, and broke through for her maiden victory in yesterday's Group 3 contest, which has likely earned her a shot at the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m). Purchased by Sheamus Mills Bloodstock for $250,000 from the Widden Stud draft, the filly defeated the Japanese-bred Glint Of Hope (Deep Impact) by a length and three-quarters, with Biscayne Bay (Sebring) three lengths from the winner in third. Daisies is a sister to the stakes placed Motown Lil from Tigress Lily (Snitzel), a four-time winner and Sydney stakes performer, and daughter of New Zealand champion three-year-old and three-time Group 1 winner Tycoon Lil (Last Tycoon). "I think she'll go into the Oaks from here," co-trainer Mick Price said. "We always wanted to go to 2000 metres which is why we didn't run her in the Thousand Guineas. I thought she's still learning, she's not the quickest out of the gates but I did ask Damian (Lane, jockey) 'get a man up', put her nose in the 'v' and see if we can get a little bit tactical. I suppose into the Oaks from here."

Fangirl takes out Reginald Allen Quality

Meanwhile, the decision to bypass the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) with Fangirl paid dividends for trainer Chris Waller yesterday when she built on her last start maiden win at Goulburn to win at stakes level on her just her fourth start. She defeated Roots (Press Statement) by half a length with Decent Raine (Dissident) a further two lengths back in third. The Ingham Racing homebred is a daughter of multiple stakes winner Little Surfer Girl (Encosta de Lago), herself a winner of this race in 2009. Further back her granddam, special Harmony (Spinning World), landed three elite-level races including the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) and Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). "She has really started to emerge over the past few weeks and it was exciting to see her burst through the pack," Waller said. "She got a little bit lost when she hit the front. I think the second horse deserves a little bit of merit as well. We'll consider a race at Flemington but there's not a lot of her. I guess how she pulls up will be the key, but she'll measure up in the autumn."

Five for Extreme Choice

From just 48 first crop foals and 22 runners, Newgate Stud-based sire Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) sired his fifth stakes winner after Extreme Flight (3 c ex Abscond by Galileo) took his record to three wins from five starts with a success in the Gothic Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Caulfield yesterday. The Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained colt defeated Prince Alexander (Animal Kingdom) by a neck, the pair drawing clear of Sandy Prince (Pride Of Dubai) who finished six lengths further back in third. Extreme Flight is the fourth foal and third stakes winner out of the unraced Abscond (Galileo), with the three-year-old a half-brother to 2019 Tattersall's Tiara (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Invincibella (I Am Invincible) and Group 3 winner Secret Blaze (Sizzling). Extreme Flight was a $340,000 buy for Anthony Cummings from the Sledmere draft at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale last year. Extreme Choice is standing for a private fee.

Extreme Flight connections vindicated for refusing offers from Hong Kong

Extreme Flight's (Extreme Choice) win vindicated the owners' decision to knock back "significant" offers from Hong Kong for the colt earlier in the season. "Now they've got a stakes winner," Freedman said. "It was terrific. It was good for Damien Thornton who has had three wins on him now and who he's done a lot of work for the stable and he's getting his just reward. And credit to all the staff at home. They've done a terrific job." Thornton was also impressed with Extreme Flight's win yesterday, mentioning post-race that the colt had to dig deep to gain the win. "He is doing a terrific job. I said to Sam and Brad (Taylor) that he's going to be a nice horse."

32 for Tavistock

The Trained by Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Gunstock (3 c ex Zeranti by Zabeel) turned the tables on El Patroness (Shamus Award) to bounce back to winning ways in the Caulfield Classic (Gr 2, 2000m) at Caulfield yesterday, set himself up a crack at the VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) on October 30. The son of Tavistock (Montjeu) suffered a shock defeat when finishing third in the Super Impose Stakes (Listed, 1800m), but in stepping up to 2000 metres for his fourth career start, the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained three-year-old delivered by a cosy length and three-quarters over El Patroness (Shamus Award), with Teewaters (Dundeel) a further length back in third. Gunstock, who becomes the 32nd individual stakes winner for the late Cambridge Stud-based sire Tavistock, is a graduate of the Inglis Ready 2 Race sale last year when purchased for $135,000 by Import Racing from Ohukia Lodge. Ohukia Lodge purchased the colt as a yearling for NZ$80,000 from the New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka National Yearling Sale from the Cambridge Stud draft.

Gunstock a Derby contender

In winning yesterday's Group 3, Gunstock earned himself a tilt at the VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m). "He put himself in a good position with the blinkers, which is key," winning rider Jye McNeil told Racing.com. "He travelled really comfortably off a moderate tempo and it was just a matter of getting a bit of room at some stage, which we got at around the 500 (metre mark). I felt as though, in the straight when he put them away, he had a little glance around, so there's a bit of upside there." Gunstock is one of two winners out of the unraced Zabeel (Sir Tristram) maree Zeranti, making him a brother to Group 2 runner-up The Irishman. Further afield this is the same family as Group 1 winner Hold That Smile (Haulpak). A brother to Gunstock was purchased by DGR Thoroughbred Services and Snowden Racing for NZ$200,000 at New Zealand Bloodstock Karaka National Yearling Sale earlier this year and Zeranti was covered by Belardo (Lope De Vega) last year.

Eight for Noble Mission

Buffalo River (6 g ex Fashion Insider by Indian Charlie) made a welcome return to the winners' enclosure when landing his maiden stakes success in the Moonga Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Caulfield yesterday and in doing so became the eighth individual stakes winner for Noble Mission (Galileo). Buffalo River defeated King Magnus (Magnus) by three-quarters of a length, with Justacanta (Per Incanto) third, two lengths behind the winner. A rising star of the handicap ranks when winning six races in seven starts from 2018 through to the autumn of 2020, the six-year-old had been winless in ten subsequent starts prior to yesterday's victory. Buffalo River was a 180,000 guineas (approx. AU$350,500) purchase for Paul Moroney Bloodstock at the Tattersalls Autumn Horses in Training Sale in 2018. The US bred is out of a sister to Grade 2-winning pair Bwana Charlie (Indian Charlie) and My Pal Charlie (Indian Charlie). Famed for being the brother of unbeaten champion Frankel, Noble Mission stands at Lane's End Farm in Kentucky for a fee of US$20,000 (approx. AU$27,000).

Buffalo River back in form to win Moonga

Winning jockey Jye McNeil expressed his delight with Buffalo River, following the gelding's maiden stakes win yesterday "He was actually quite relaxed in the early stages but being caught out wide from that draw I had to roll to the top and I wanted to do that gradually so that we didn't use ourselves up too much," McNeil told Racing.com. "Once we got to the lead, he was pretty controlled and then it was just a matter of not making him sit-and-sprint. Moving him into the race, although he was peaking over the last 50 metres, he'd done enough to win the race."

12 for Deep Field

Big Parade (5 g ex Crystal Rock by Fastnet Rock) landed the Sydney Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick yesterday and in the process handed Newgate Farm-based sire Deep Field (Northern Meteor) with his 12th individual stakes winner. The gelding was landing his sixth win from ten starts since coming into the care of Mark Newnham when he defeated Standout (Exceed And Excel) by a length and a quarter, with Prime Candidate (Denman) another head further back in third. Big Parade was purchased for $160,000 by Steve Summers from the Middlebrook Valley Lodge draft at the 2018 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale. Big Parade is the second winner out of winning mare Crystal Rock (Fastnet Rock), a half-sister to Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) runner-up Zizou (Fusaichi Pegasus). Crystal Rock's filly Hellbent (I Am Invincible) sold for $300,000 to Star Thoroughbreds and Randwick Bloodstock Agency at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale earlier this year and she was covered by Star Turn (Star Witness) last year. Deep Field is standing for a fee of $88,000 (Inc GST).

Big Parade to chase lucrative bonus after Sydney Stakes win

The Mark Newnham-trained Big Parade is set to try his hand at gaining a $750,000 bonus in the Classique Legend Stakes (1300m) after his win yesterday in the Sydney Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick. "He's got a bit more to his armoury now than he had before," Newnham said. "Just being a gelding for the whole preparation, he's doing everything consistently better. He parades better, his work's more consistent, his moods are more consistent. That's a pretty exciting win on a big day." The Classique Legend Stakes is due to be run at Rosehill on October 30.

Oxley Road caps big day for Moody with Sprint win

Oxley Road (4 c Exceed And Excel - Bonnie Mac by Thorn Park) capped off a memorable day for trainer Peter Moody when he proved too strong for his rivals in the Caulfield Sprint (Gr 2, 1000m) yesterday. Having taken out the Zeditave Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) last season, the four-year-old gelding returned to winning ways when he defeated Malkovich (Choisir) by three-quarters of a length with Curran (Night Of Thunder) another two and three-quarters of a length away in third. Purchased by Stephen Gray for $125,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in 2019, Oxley Road is one of three winners out of Listed winner Bonnie Mac (Thorn Park), making him a brother to 2019 Coolmore Stud Stakes (registered as Ascot Vale Stakes) (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Exceedance, while he is a half-brother to Listed scorer Mac 'N' Cheese (Sebring). Bonnie Mac is herself a half-sister to Group 3-winning pair Upham (Mastercraftsman) and Intimate Moment (Dubawi).

Colette shows class in Tristarc

Colette (5 m Hallowed Crown - Libretto by Singspiel) overcame a hoof issue which derailed her Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) bid to claim the Tristarc Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield yesterday. The James Cummings-trained mare ran out a comfortable one-and-a-quarter length winner over Steinem (Frankel), while Aidensfield (Dissident) finished two and a half lengths behind the winner in third. "She didn't begin as well as I would have liked," jockey Damian Lane said. "She dropped the bridle a long way out and I thought pre-race that the last thing I wanted to be doing was getting caught flat-footed because she was originally trained for a staying prep and that's exactly what happened. To her credit, between the 400 (metre mark) and the 250, it was really where she made good ground and killed the race. Not easy to get horses back from setbacks mid-campaign to winning races. They've done a great job with this mare and I'd say her spring is not over yet." Last season's Golden Eagle (1500m) winner will likely take aim at the Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on her next start.

Second Listed win for Mileva

Mileva (4 m Headwater - Lady Einstein by Magic Albert) sprung a shock in the Alinghi Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Caulfield yesterday to claim a second success at stakes level. Sent off an unfancied $26 chance, Mileva finished three-quarters of a length ahead of Bless Her (Street Boss), with Never Talk (No Nay Never) two and a half lengths behind the winner in third. The Phillip Stokes-trained mare is one of three stakes winners from the first crop of Vinery Stud stallion Headwater (Exceed And Excel), who also boasts second crop Group 2 winner Jamaea. Mileva was a $42,000 buy for Oopy MacGillivray from the Little Hills Pastoral draft at the Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale in 2019.

Think It Over too good in Craven Plate

Last season's George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) winner Think It Over (6 g So You Think - Personal Service by Zabeel) was sent off a $1.75 chance to defend his Craven Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) title and he duly delivered with minimal fuss at Randwick yesterday, cantering to a two-length win over Sky Lab (Real Impact). Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Lion's Roar (Contributer) held on for third in the six-runner race. The Kerry Parker-trained six-year-old has now won three of his last four starts, with wins in the Chelmsford Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) and Hill Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) this preparation taking his career tally to nine wins, five at stakes level, from 29 starts and over $2.7 million in prize-money.

Art Cadeau a star of a Country

This year's Kosciuszko (1200m) went the way of the Terry Robinson-trained Art Cadeau (Artie Schiller) who pounced late in a thrilling renewal to overhaul last year's champion Handle The Truth (Star Witness) in winning by a head. The Rodney Northam-trained Spiranac (Magic Albert) finished third, another three-quarters of a length in arrears. Art Cadeau, who won the $500,000 Country Championships Final (1400m) in April, takes the lion's share of the $1.3 million prize, with his own career earnings rocketing to over $1.3 million. "I didn't think he was ever going to get there," Robinson said. "I knew he'd be strong and I always knew he'd just find. He just keeps giving. He's never beat that horse." The landmark win coincides with the running of the memorial race for Terry's father, Kevin, at Menangle Park yesterday evening. A homebred for Mick Lill, Art Cadeau is the sixth foal out of Listed-winning Hurricane Sky (Star Watch) mare Jewelled Gate.

Elite Street back in form

Last year's Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Elite Street (5 g Street Boss - Elite Ateates by Exceed And Excel) scored his first win since his victory in the Group 1, as he landed the R S Crawford Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Ascot yesterday. Shouldering 59.5 kilograms, the five-year-old defeated 12-year-old veteran Rock Magic (Redoute's Choice) by three-quarters of a length, who finished a head in front of the Bob Peters-owned Stageman (Written Tycoon). The Daniel Morton-trained gelding takes his career record to six wins from 14 starts and $848,580 in prize-money. The Anita Vale Stud homebred is the first foal out of Elite Ateates (Exceed And Excel), who has a two-year-old filly by Dundee (High Chaparral), a yearling colt by Written By (Written Tycoon) and was covered by Omaha Beach (War Front) last year.

Music has them dancing to her tune

The Simon Miller-trained Dance Music (6 m War Chant - Fast Flowing by Dubawi) struck in the Northerly Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Ascot yesterday for a fifth win at stakes level, and second Group 3 success. Dance Music prevailed over Massimo (Sessions) by a head, while her stablemate and race favourite Valour Road (Frost Giant) finished third, a length from the winner. Returning first-up after four placed efforts in Group-race company during the winter, homebred Dance Music takes her record to 12 wins from 28 starts.

Lane to miss Derby Day

Damian Lane will miss the opening day of the Melbourne Cup Carnival at Flemington after being on the receiving end of an eight-meeting ban for breaching whip rules yesterday. Lane pleaded guilty to a charge of excessive whip use on the Godolphin mare Colette (Hallowed Crown) when winning the Tristarc Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), having struck her ten times before the 100-metre mark, more than the permitted five. He was also fined $4,500. Lane has deferred his suspension so he can partner Verry Elleegant (Zed) in next week's Cox Plate.

Vale Stryker

Platinum Thoroughbreds-based stallion Stryker (Fastnet Rock) is reported to have died. The son of Fastnet Rock (Danehill), who has two individual stakes winners to his name, was 15. Stryker had only recently returned to Victoria when Platinum Thoroughbreds acquired him from a stud in Wakool, New South Wales, earlier this year, having started his stud career at Three Bridges Thoroughbreds when retired in 2011. Following his $600,000 purchase from the Inglis Easter yearling sale by the Ingham family, Stryker went on to become a winner of two races, the Fred Best Classic (Gr 3, 1400m) at Doomben among them, while he was placed twice at Group 1 level, including in the Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m). His first crop yielded his only Group 1 winner as a sire, courtesy of New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Rangipo, who added three Guineas triumphs to his haul, namely the Waikato Guineas (Gr 2, 2000m), Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) and Great Northern Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m).

Sir Dragonet gone

Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) hero Sir Dragonet (Camelot) has been euthanised after breaking down during trackwork at Moonee Valley yesterday morning. The Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained six-year-old was preparing to defend his crown, with the Cox Plate taking centre stage next weekend. The Irish-bred former Aidan O'Brien-trained galloper collected a Group 3 success in the Chester Vase (Gr 3, 1m 4f) before making his way to Australia under an Ozzie Kheir-led syndicate, winning the Cox Plate on his first Australian start and adding a further Group 1 success in the Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m), earning over $5 million in prize-money. He is one of eight elite level winners for Camelot (Montjeu), alongside dual Australian Group 1 winner Russian Camelot.

NEW ZEALAND

24 for Savabeel

Savy Yong Blonk (6 m ex Ampin by Pins) provided sire Savabeel (Zabeel) his 24th individual Group 1 winner as she ran out the winner of the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) at Hastings yesterday. Trained by Jamie Richards, the six-year-old started as the $8.30 fourth favourite after she was an eye-catching sixth behind Callsign Mav (Atlante) in the Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) last month on her seasonal return before disappointing over 1600 metres at Te Rapa. Savy Yong Blonk settled in midfield under Danielle Johnson and was travelling nicely approaching the home straight, making her challenge at the 400 metre pole and having a good battle with Harlech (Darci Brahma) to get the better of that horse by a head with Prise De Fer (Savabeel) a further half-length back in third.

Three for Niagara

There You Go (3 f ex Not A Dancer by Not A Single Doubt) handed Niagara (Encosta De Lago) his third individual stakes winner when she won the John Grigg Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Ashburton yesterday. Trained by Tony Pike, the three-year-old filly broke her maiden in easy fashion over 1400 metres at Riccarton earlier this month and she went on to dominate this race from the front under Kozzi Asano after holding off early pace challenges. Still in front turning for home, she was again challenged but managed to hold off Art De Triomphe (Vadamos) by a comfortable two lengths with I Wish I Win (Savabeel) a further two lengths back in third. Owned by S W Bruhn, There You Go is a fourth foal out of seven-time-winning mare Not A Dancer (Not A Single Doubt) and is a sister to winner Drexler.

There You Go rockets to 1,000 Guineas favouritism

There You Go

NZ RACING

After her victory in yesterday's Group 3, There You Go has been installed as the favourite for the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Ellerslie on November 13. "Nothing really went right for her today and she still got the job done in good fashion, so I'm delighted with her," winning trainer Tony Pike said. "We've always thought she was very good, as she is a beautiful, big strong filly with a massive action. She had to step up a few classes today and did it nicely and I think she will be even better when she gets back to the bigger, roomier track at Riccarton, so it is very exciting."

Two Illicit lands Spring Sprint

Two Illicit (5 m ex Gemini by Tale Of The Cat) ran out a comfortable winner of the Spring Sprint Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) at Hastings yesterday for training partnership Roger James and Robert Wellwood. After an unsuccessful two-race campaign in Queensland, the five-year-old mare was looking to bounce back now on home shores and she did just that, settling well in midfield for Michael McNab before being produced in the home straight to sprint past her rivals and beat Times Ticking (Tavistock) by a length and a quarter with Vigor Winner (Declaration Of War) a two and a quarter lengths back in third. Owned by Mr B M Taylor et al, Two Illicit is a third foal out of placed mare Gemini (Tale Of The Cat) and is a half-sister to winner Tatalina (Ocean Park).

ASIA

52 for Heart's Cry

Shadow Diva (5 m ex Diamond Diva by Dansili) brought up Heart's Cry (Sunday Silence) 52nd individual stakes winner when she won the Ireland Trophy Fuchu Himba Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) at Tokyo yesterday. Ridden by Yuichi Fukunaga and trained by Makoto Saito, the five-year-old mare managed to hold off the challenge of Andraste (Orfevre) by a neck with Maltese Diosa (Kizuna) a further one and a quarter lengths back in third. Bred by Northern Racing, the mare was sold to Three H Racing Co for ¥72,000,000 (approx. AU$850,000). A fourth foal out of Grade 2-winning mare Diamond Diva (Dansili), Shadow Diva is closely related to winner by Deep Impact and is a half-sister to winners Haumea (King Kamehameha) and Navy Ash (King Kamehameha).

INTERNATIONAL

46 for Dubawi

Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) sired his 46th elite-level winner when his son Creative Force (3 g ex Choose Me by Choisir) won the Champions Sprint Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Ascot yesterday. Ridden by William Buick, the Charlie Appleby-trained three-year-old bounced back from a disappointing run at Haydock to sit handy behind the leader and last year's winner Glen Shiel (Pivotal) before pouncing on that rival inside the final furlong to pull a length clear of that rival with Minzaal (Mehmas) running on well to grab third, a further length behind. A sixth foal out of Listed-winning mare Choose Me (Choisir), Creative Force is a half-brother to Group 1 winner Persuasive (Dark Angel) and Listed winner Tisbutadream (Dream Ahead). Dubawi stood at Dalham Hall Stud in 2021 at a fee of £250,000 (approx. AU$463,000).

First for Muhaarar

Eshaada (3 f ex Muhawah by Nayef) produced an upset victory in the Champions Fillies and Mares Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f) at Ascot yesterday and in doing so handed her sire Muhaarar (Oasis Dream) with his first elite-level winner. Trained by Roger Varian, the three-year-old filly was kept in midfield for most of the race before being angled out to mount her challenge turning for home. Driven to the lead by Jim Crowley, she battled hard to fend off the late persistent challenge of Albafloa, also by Muhaarar, by a short-head with the multiple Group 1-winning filly Snowfall (Deep Impact) a further three and a half lengths back in third. Eshaada is the third foal out of winning dam Muhawah (Nayef) who herself is a sister to Group 1 winner and fellow Shadwell stallion Tamayuz. Muhaarar stood at Nunnery Stud in 2021 for a fee of £10,000 (approx. AU$18,500).

UK: Baaeed proves he's the real deal

The William Haggas-trained Baaeed (3 c Sea The Stars - Aghareed by Kingmambo) proved that he is the real deal as he produced a classy performance to win the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Ascot yesterday and stretch his unbeaten run to six. Ridden by Jim Crowley, the three-year-old managed to settle well in midfield from his wide draw and showed a good turn of foot inside the final furlong to get the better of multiple Group 1 winner Palace Pier (Kingman) by a neck. Lady Bowthorpe (Nathaniel) was a length and a quarter behind in third. Baaeed has once again exemplified the potency of Sea The Stars when mated to daughters of Kingmambo (Mr. Prospector), with the colt one of three Group 1 winners bred on the cross, with Cloth Of Stars and Zelzal the others. The Sea The Stars / Kingmambo nick has been proven extraordinarily successful, being responsible for 19 winners from 20 runners and they are headed by eight stakes winners, which fires at a red-hot 40 per cent strike rate of stakes winners to runners.

UK: Trushan reigns supreme in Long Distance Cup

Trushan (5 g Planteur - Shao Line by General Holme) proved he is the new staying division champion when he was a gutsy winner of the Long Distance Cup (Gr 2, 2m) at Ascot yesterday. Already a winner of the Goodwood Cup (Gr 1, 2m) and the Prix Du Cadran (Gr 1, 4000m) this season, the Alan King-trained five-year-old had just a two week turnaround from his dominant performance in France. Settling in midfield under Hollie Doyle, the gelding was keen throughout but still had more than enough class to see himself home, ranging up to the leaders approaching the bend and taking the lead before staying on well to beat Tashkhan (Born To Sea) by a length and a half with multiple Group 1 winner Stradivarius a further two and a half lengths back in third.

Sealiway victorious in the Champion

Sealiway (3 c Galiway - Kensea by Kendargent) built on his Pix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) fifth to give France yet another winner in the Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at Ascot yesterday. Trained by Cedric Rossi and ridden by Mickael Barzalona, the three-year-old colt was kept in midfield behind the leaders before being asked for an effort in the home straight, quickening well to gain the lead before holding off the final challenge of Dubai Honour (Pride Of Dubai) to win by three-quarters of a length.

Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Mac Swiney (New Approach) was a further length and a half back in third. Bred by Guy Pariente Holding and owned by Le Haras De La Gousserie, Sealiway is the third foal out of Listed-winning mare Kensea (Kendargent).

77 for Kodiak

The Aidan O'Brien-trained Glounthaune (2 c ex Khaimah by Nayef) landed the Killavullan Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Leopardstown yesterday and provided his sire Kodiak (Danehill) with his 77th individual stakes winner. Bred by Tally-Ho Stud, which is run by Mrs Stockwell's daughter Anne and her husband Tony O'Callaghan, Glounthaune was purchased by Stockwell's grandson MV Magnier for 350,000 guineas (approx. AU$680,000) at Book 1 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale last year. Prominent throughout, Glounthaune led in the final 110 yards and ran on well to win by half a length from Pennine Hills (Kodiak) while I Am Magic (Magician) was a further half a length back in third. Glounthaune is out of an unraced Nayef (Gulch) half-sister to French Classic-placed Motamarris (Le Havre) and from the family of Group 1 winners Tamayuz (Nayef) and Santiago (Authorized). Kodiak stood at Tally-Ho Stud where his fee in 2021 was advertised as €65,000.

16 for Dawn Approach

Ger Lyons's Desmond Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) runner-up Georgeville (5 g ex Big Break by Dansili) broke through for the first time at stakes level yesterday when taking out the Trigo Stakes (Listed, 1m 2f) at Leopardstown and became the 16th individual stakes winner for his sire Dawn Approach (New Approach). The progressive five-year-old was sent off as joint favourite and he duly obliged winning by two and a half lengths from Ququod (Dubawi) while co-favourite Leo De Fury (Australia) was a neck away in third. Bred by Juddmonte, Georgeville was sold as a four-year-old at Tattersalls Horses In Training Sale for 75,000gns and he is out of dual Group 3 winner Big Break (Dansili) who is a full-sister to the Irish Champion Older Horse and stallion Famous Name while it is the further family of the Australian Champion Makybe Diva (Desert King).

Five for National Defense

Widden Stud shittler National Defense (Invincible Spirit) was represented with his fifth individual winner from his first European crop when Boracay (2 f ex Bellechance by Acclamation) took out the 1100 metre maiden on debut at Pisa yesterday. Trained by Mario Migheli, the juvenile was an impressive length and a half winner over Not Torne (Fulbright) and Lethal Grey (Lethal Force) who both had the benefit of racecourse experience. Boracay is out of the winning Bellechance (Acclamation) and he becomes her second winner from as many runners. National Defense, also the sire of stakes winner and Queen Mary Stakes (Gr 2, 5f) runner-up Twilight Gleaming, stood at the Irish National Stud for a fee of €5,000 this year whilst his fee at Widden is $9,900 (Inc GST) this year.

Tattersalls October Yearling Sale concludes

brought a remarkable two weeks of yearling sales to a close at Park Paddocks yesterday and saw a top lot of 18,000gns for a filly by first season sire Ardad (Kodiac) from Throckmorton Court Stud after she was purchased by Con Marnane. Offered as Lot 2004, she is out of the winning Belle Dormant (Rip Van Winkle) and is from the family of Champion St Mark's Basilica (Siyuni). The sale followed on from Books 1 to 3 with gains across the board. The aggregate and median increased 20 per cent, while the average was up 10 per cent.

Mahony pleased with Tattersalls results

At the conclusion of Book 4 yesterday, Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony said: "Last year's Tattersalls October Yearling Sale was hailed as a story of remarkable resilience in the face of uniquely challenging circumstances. This year it should be hailed for the sustained demand from start to finish at all levels of the market. Park Paddocks has been teeming with life over the last two weeks and after the ordeals of the past 18 months it has been a real pleasure to see the sales grounds, the bars and the restaurants alive with activity again, reinforcing Newmarket's status as the hub of the European thoroughbred industry."

Edmond Mahony

Trumpy gives Clements another Gold Cup trump card

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

Argentinian import Trumpy (Lizard Island) finally got off the mark at his 14th Kranji start yesterday and has in the process all but booked his ticket for the Singapore Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m).

The timing could not have been better with the six-year-old coming with a sneaky run along the rails in the S$70,000 Better Life 2013 Stakes Kranji Stakes C race over 1800m, even if trainer Michael Clements must have had mixed feelings at the furlong pole with one of his own, a feisty Elite Incredible (Valid Stripes) standing in the way of that much-needed victory.

But under Oscar Chavez's vigorous riding, Trumpy (S$36) knuckled down to the task to touch his stablemate off by a head.

Favourite Real Efecto (Real Impact) was too far back, but still motored home for third place another neck away, just nosing Wind Trail (Screen Hero) out of a podium finish. The winning time was 1min 48.78secs for the 1800m on the Long Course.

Clements was certainly welcoming the 1-2 as the perfect script given Elite Incredible is also nominated for the S$1 million Singapore Gold Cup on November 14, but on 77 points, he sat in 14th place in the order of entry and was almost assured of a berth while Trumpy sat just outside the borderline on 73 points (18th).

On paper, the Singapore champion trainer can now count on both in the blue riband, not to mention he already had his five leading hopes (later contesting the Group 1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup over 1800m) of Top Knight (Zoustar), Big Hearted (Hallowed Crown), Ocean Crossing (All Too Hard), So Hi Class (Dark Angel) and Prosperous Return (Fighting Sun) holding a Gold Cup seat at this stage.

Whether Trumpy will be one of his trump cards in the time-honoured race remains to be seen, but Clements was just happy to savour the moment he has finally got a local win out of the Argentinian seven-time winner formerly prepared by Cliff Brown.

Trumpy

SINGAPORE TURF CLUB

"I don't know much about his history, but I know he won all his seven races on dirt, and a lot of them over a distance," said Clements.

"He ran a good race (fourth) in the Gold Cup when Cliff had him last year. He needed to win this race today to pick up more points towards this year's Gold Cup.

"If he gets six points, he will get into the high 70s, and is likely to get a run. Elite Incredible also ran well, and he's more or less guaranteed of a run as he has a higher rating (77)."

Clements said Trumpy's run panned out beautifully with Chavez riding the rails throughout.

"He's been running fair races all this time. He hasn't been finishing too far off," he said.

"He has been improving slowly and surely, and has come right at the right time.

"The ride just behind the leaders and getting the rails run definitely helped. It was a two-horse fight from the 200m, and Trumpy got there at the right time.

"The step-up to 1800m also helped as he's been looking for more ground."

That account-opener has now taken Trumpy's prize-money past the S$95,000 mark for the Elvin Racing Stable, with the bulk of his previous earnings made from that fourth place in last year's Singapore Gold Cup.

Fitzsimmons picks up another treble

Trainer Tim Fitzsimmons enjoyed a great day at the office when he brought up his second career treble.

Interestingly, the Australian's big haul was achieved with horses who were not really prominent in the market, unlike at his first hat-trick on June 5 when Boomba (Showcasing), Don De La Vega (Lope De Vega) and Relentless (Hallowed Crown) were all well fancied.

Miracle (Stratum) (S$37) fired the first salvo in the opener, the $30,000 Top Knight 2020 Stakes Class 5 Division 1 (1200m) before Hero (Warrior's Reward) (S$94) doubled the score four races later in the S$75,000 Laughing Gravy 2016 Stakes Novice (1400m) and Stunning Cat (Smart Missile) (S$63) completed the rout two events later in the S$50,000 Wild Geese 2014 Stakes Class 4 Division 1 race (1200m).

Fitzsimmons was delighted to have saddled two winners for his staunchest supporter, the Buffalo Stable (Miracle and Hero) while a win from Stunning Cat will always be celebrated at home as he shares the former Shane Baertschiger-trained galloper with his wife Joan.

"It's great to train two winners for my biggest supporter Buffalo Stable, and one for myself and my wife," said Fitzsimmons.

“All ran well, including Resurgence (Proisir) (fourth in Race 2). It’s been an amazing day, a big thank you to my staff”

Obviously, the better of the trio of the winners is Stunning Cat, who had already proven to be a handy money spinner with four wins for Baertschiger, and has now kept up the same trend with a second win for Cliff Brown’s former assistant-trainer, bringing up his total stakes earnings past the S$260,000 mark.

Held in a one-off mid-division spot by leading apprentice jockey Hakim Kamaruddin, the seven-year-old produced the best finish when hooked towards the outside part of the straight inside the last 400m.

Hitting top gear, Stunning Cat wheeled away towards a comfortable two and three quarter length win from The August (I Am Invincible) with Lim’s Samurai (Samurai Heart) third another three-quarter length away. The winning time was 1min 9.77secs for 1200m on the Long Course.

Hero was the one punters did not see coming if his last place at his last start was any indication of his form, but Fitzsimmons was prepared to put a line through that run from the four-year-old.

“It wasn’t the plan to lead that day. That run left me scratching my head a little, but today we went back to riding him quiet off the speed” he said.

“I also think he didn’t like the blinkers the last time. He wanders around too much, but the blinkers didn’t work with him.

“He’s a progressive horse. The 1400m is his minimum trip, he’ll get better as he gets further.”

As for Miracle, Fitzsimmons said the more forward position in relation to the lead swung the race for the six-year-old.

“Miracle’s form has been mixed, but I was adamant he was a horse you need to get away better. He was too far back at his last start.

“It was a 10-out-of-10 ride from Marc.”

With that second win, Miracle has now made in excess of S$45,000 for the Buffalo Stable, who was later made richer by another S$40,000 from the winning cut earned by Hero, who himself has amassed more than S$50,000.

Strong N Smart back to his best

Former handy three-year-old Strong N Smart (Per Incanto) bounced back to his best form with an explosive last-to-first win on the card.

Strong N Smart

STC

Things looked hairy for the S$8 hotpot at the top of the straight when he cornered into the back of a fortress of horses, but as he found clean air on the outside a run to the judge quickly unfolded, and it soon became just a matter of when the Leslie Khoo-trained gelding would sail home.

The well-backed Royalty (Fastnet Rock) had every chance when he struck the front in the straight, but had no answer to Strong N Smart’s burst. One length split them in the photo with the same margin holding Eagle Eye (Pure Prize) in third spot.

Strong N Smart clocked 1min 9.93secs for the 1200m on the Long Course. That third win has now seen his account swell past the S$110,000 mark for Khoo, who is his owner as well.

The facetious Singaporean handler couldn’t help himself to a bit of colourful language in describing his state of mind at the point of the turn.

“My b* went up,” said Khoo. “I thought he couldn’t win from there.

“But Danny rode a very patient race. The gap came up and the Long Course also helped.”

Khoo said the short break after Strong N Smart’s unplaced run in the Singapore Three-Year-Old Sprint (Gr 3, 1200m) in June has helped furnish him out into a stronger individual.

“He’s come back stronger after the break. I’ve been building him up, he had a nice quiet trial two weeks ago,” he said.

Though all three victories have come in six-furlong turf races, Khoo said he would like to step him up over more ground.

“I think he’ll be even better over a longer trip. I’ll look for a 1400m race for him at some stage,” he said.

Lim’s Lightning out of QEII Cup after minor fall

Queen Elizabeth II Cup’s raging favourite Lim’s Lightning (Lope De Vega) was sensationally scratched on the morning of the big race due to a minor injury.

Trainer Daniel Meagher reported that the gelding was only metres away from reaching the stables after his afternoon walk yesterday when he suddenly got spooked by a noise, slipped and fell.

Luckily, he got back on his feet, but the fall was not without a scratch, especially around the right shoulder. He was duly treated, but the next morning, he was short.

It wasn’t a serious bruise, but the decision was still a no-brainer. Lim’s Lightning was coming out of the Cup.

Meagher was understandably dejected, but relieved at the same time, the horse was still in one piece.

“It was a freak accident during his walk yesterday afternoon. He was 20 metres away from walking into the barn when it happened,” said the Australian handler.

“He took fright at a noise that came opposite from where he walks. Not sure what it was, it was like something fell off a wall.

“He lost his footing, slipped to the side, and I was thinking to myself, he was so quiet, and how stupid is this, it took one noise and here he is on the ground.

“Like I said before, it doesn’t take much for him to get spooked by little things, and it’s happened at the worst time.

“He came back up right away, but he had some cuts and bruises. We stayed late cleaning his wounds not realising he would be lame.

“But on the next day he was short in his walk. It was nothing major, but we couldn’t run him.

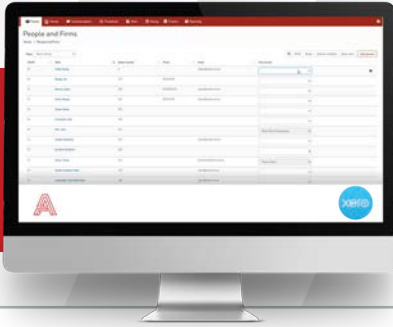

“It’s disappointing, but more importantly, we’ve still got a horse. (Owner) Mr Lim (Siah Mong) is understanding and knows we’ve been very patient with this horse, but unfortunately, these things can happen.

“We’re moving on, and we can still bring him back for the same races next year.”

With Lim’s Lightning out, the S$300,000 Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Gr 1, 1800m) opens up a bit more, for example Singapore champion trainer Michael Clements’ chance of going back-to-back with Top Knight brightens up significantly. He also saddles four more runners, of whom Big Hearted is his next best chance.

Others like Hard Too Think (All Too Hard) and Minister (Street Sense) will also garner more support following the withdrawal of the hot favourite.

Then followed: Cheval Prometteur (GB), House of Cartier (AUS), Llanacord (NZ), Beauden (NZ), Big Mike (NZ), Robusto (NZ), The Buzz (NZ), Communique (NZ), Ritani (NZ), Masetto (NZ), Tappy's One (NZ), Peecee Pussycat (NZ), Imelda Mary (NZ), last.

Analysis: Tough mare and former dual Group 3 winner, SAVY YONG BLONK, was rewarded with Group 1 success thrusting her neck in front inside the last 50m to add win eight at start 27. She was worse than midfield, one off the fence with a lap to run, got bumped near the 1600m then improved to be midfield starting the back straight. The field compacted near the 600m and she went wide, kept improving but was widest rounding into the home straight. Four lengths off the lead she balanced then began her chase, shared second at the 200m, third but close at the 100m then dove the last 50m to get up. Harlech sat sixth leaving the back straight, inched closer inside the 600m and kept to the inner rounding into the straight. He moved out from the 300m, challenged three wide inside the 200m, co-led inside the 100m but was outfinished late yet a solid second. Prise De Fer was midfield at the 800m, moved forward three deep from the 600m and was widest but one turning in. He shared third at the 200m, fourth at the 100m but stuck his neck out to nab third at the line. Cheval Prometteur was second at the 300m, led inside the 200m then battled away for a close up fourth. [LJ]

Margins: 3.5 lens, 1.8 lens. Time: 2:30.87 (last 600m)

Betting: $2.30, $9.00, $31.00

Then followed: Montefilia (AUS), Great House (IRE), Chapada (AUS), She's Ideel (AUS), Young Werther (NZ), Ocean Billy (NZ), Port Guillaume (FR), Homesman (USA), Master of Wine (GER), Delphi (IRE), The Chosen One (NZ), Selino (GB), Duais (AUS), Explosive Jack (NZ), Charms Star (NZ), last.

Analysis: INCENTIVISE scored a stunning victory, proving himself an exceptionally talented stayer. Unplaced at his first three starts of his career, he is now the winner of his last nine starts in succession, including three at Group 1 after adding this renowned feature to his imposing record. He went forward from his outside barrier (18) and settled in third place – out three deep. He put pressure on the leaders at the 800m, got the upper hand on straightening and then drew away to score impressively by three and half lengths. Nonconformist settled nicely in seventh place, but deep. He tracked the eventual winner from the 800m, went to third at the 200m and kept fighting gamely for a very good second. Persan went forward from the start, led early on before settling in second spot. He moved outside the new leader (Delphi) at the 1400m and continued to race on the pace until the home straight and he did a great job in holding on for third after running a great race. Montefilia settled midfield (wide with cover), tracked up from the 800m before commencing her move approaching the home turn. She moved up well on straightening and then fought strongly for (5.3 lengths) fourth. Great House had a good trip in seventh place on the rails from his good barrier (2) before improving along the inner at the turn to be in a challenging position on straightening. He then battled well for (5.5 lengths) fifth in a very sound effort while the second favourite Delphi worked from his wide barrier (17) to lead and after running a bold race, faded in the straight to finish 13th. Then followed: Nimalee (AUS), Pride of Jenni (AUS), Brazen Song (AUS), Ruby Street (AUS), last.

Analysis: COLETTE switched to this shorter 1400m distance of this race after a foot injury halted her Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) preparation and the classy filly delivered with a good win. She settled in last place in the seven-runner field but was under riding to improve when the pace quickened coming to the turn. But she responded well in the straight and showed her class over the final stages to win well. Steinem raced in second last place, moved up well (deep) from the 600m, took the lead at the 200m and fought gamely for second in a smart second-up performance. Aidensfield raced in third place, moved up well at the home turn, challenged at the 200m and then battled strongly for a good third. Nimalee was fifth at the 600m but was under pressure, behind runners, on straightening. She then responded with a late bid to finish fourth, narrowly missing third in a photo, with the leader Pride Of Jenni holding on for fifth. [KB]

Then followed: Free of Debt (AUS), General Beau (AUS), All Banter
 (AUS), He's a Balter (AUS), Holbien (AUS), Bold Star (AUS), Jigsaw
 (AUS), last.

Analysis: OXLEY ROAD, winner of the Zeditave Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at this track in February, recorded his second Group victory here with a smart performance at his third run back this preparation, his third win in six starts. He began well, settled nicely in third place before challenging halfway down the straight. He got the upper hand in the closing stages and went on to win well. Malkovich went to the front, was pressured from the 600m, beat off the bid and was then challenged again by the eventual winner in the straight before fighting gamely for (0.8 lengths) second in a smart first-up performance. The favourite Curran was slowly away before settling back in sixth place.
 He looked to improve at the turn, took a while to wind-up and then came with a late run to take third. Free Of Debt was handy all the way and held on well for (3.8 lengths) fourth while General Beau held on for (4.5 lengths) fifth. [KB].

Then followed: Morrissette (AUS), Tiz My Bay (AUS), Adele Amour (AUS), Stalking (AUS), Kapalua Sunset (NZ), Mokulua (AUS), Gon-nadancealot (AUS), Khan's Treasure (NZ), last.

Analysis: DAISIES broke her maiden in style here appreciating the advance to 2000m at her fourth race start to suddenly come into calculations for the upcoming VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m). She settled in fifth place but deep and Damian Lane made a quick move when the pace slowed noticeably to take the lead on passing the 1000m. She claimed a break on straightening and then went on to score comfortably. Glint Of Hope was slowly away, settled in last place before improving (wide with cover) from the 600m. She then finished well, albeit without threatening the winner, for a promising second at only her fourth race start. Biscayne Bay settled midfield (wide with cover), improved from the 600m, briefly looked to be struggling at the turn before rallying quite well to finish third from Morrissette who made late ground for (3.5 lengths) fourth. The favourite Kapalua Sunset was nicely placed on the rails before being shuffled back to last approaching the home turn and then went deep but only finished fairly in the straight for eighth. Inglis
 Est 1867

Analysis: GUNSTOCK ran a strong trial for the Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) in winning here with a solid staying performance, his second win in four runs so far. He travelled well in seventh place, went to fourth nearing the turn, challenged strongly at the 200m and then went on to score quite impressively, looking suited to further still. The lone filly in the field, El Patroness raced outside the leader (Sharper) before going to the front approaching the home turn. She then fought back gamely for a very good second, enhancing her prospects significantly for the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) in the process. Teewaters had a nice trip in sixth place on the rails, got along the inner at the turn to be in a challenging position at the 300m. He then kept fighting well for a really good third. Sebastian The Fox was just beyond midfield on the rails, went between runners at the turn and then battled on quite well for (6.5 lengths) fourth. Then followed: Zoutori (AUS), Morvada (AUS), Begood Toya Mother (AUS), Gaulois (AUS), Vassilator (NZ), Hang Man (IRE), Arcadia Prince (AUS), last.

Analysis: BUFFALO RIVER followed his good second in the Weekend Hussler Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at this track last week, when having at his second run back, with a very good win here, his seventh win in 21 starts and his first stakes victory after a number of placings at that level. He soon went to the front, travelled well, lifted the pace from the 600m and claimed a break at the turn. He then fought back to score a very good win. King Magnus raced back in seventh place and was conceding the leader about eight lengths nearing the turn. He then finished solidly over the latter stages to take second in a good performance. Justacanta was fifth to the home turn, improved (deep) at the turn, put in his bid at the 200m and battled really well for third. Zoutori had a good trip in fourth place but was under pressure as the pace picked up at the turn. He then fought quite well under his top weight (60kg) for fourth with Morvada holding on for fifth. [KB]

Then followed: Our Alley Cat (NZ), Guillada (NZ), Colorado Star (NZ), Cavallo Veloce (NZ), Tabata (NZ), Germanicus (NZ), Hypnos (NZ), Brando (NZ), Streak of Power (NZ), The Mitigator (AUS), Magic Incanto (NZ), Shadows Cast (NZ), last.

Analysis: Dual Group 2 winner at three, TWO ILLICIT is back and was too classy fresh up here to add win six at start 14. She was a little tardy from the stalls but recovered to settle midfield, one out. She lost her position leaving the back straight and sat worse than midfield past the 600m. Rounding into the home straight she had plenty to do yet moved out from the 300m and into the clear. Approaching the 200m she put in four or five big bounds, levelled up at the 100m then went clear for an impressive win. Times Ticking moved forward, three wide at the 100m to sit sixth, up to share fourth past the 600m and rounded into the straight four wide. He went up to share second at the 200m, led briefly near the 100m but had no answer when the winner swept past. Vigor Winner shared fourth (rails) at the 600m, stuck to the fence turning in and kept going quite well for third. Our Alley Cat was handy but pocketed at the 300m, weaved in and out for a run then dived through late to get up for fourth. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE Inglis Est 1867

Analysis: Last start winner and Group 2 placed prior to that, BIG PARADE broke through for his maiden stakes win and eighth career win at start 15. He moved up to second upon settling to sit a half length back of the leader past the 1000m, maintaining that position past the 800m and on to the 600m. Rounding into the straight he closed on the leader, almost levelled up but was a length back at the 300m. He kept finding, inched forward and levelled up again at the 100m then drove to the lead and was a length clear at the post. Standout was fifth (rails) at the 800m, moved out rounding into the straight to track the winner then pulled wider from the 300m. He tried hard but could not make any impression and had to settle for second. Prime Candidate led them to the 400m, kicked away by a length, was collared at the 100m then fought well for third. Kementari was seventh into the straight, threaded through and kept on strongly for fourth. Then followed: The Radiant One (NZ), Glory Bound (NZ), Chanel (NZ), Fireglow (NZ), Sea Shepherd (NZ), Doringo (NZ), Hyspec (NZ), last.

Analysis: THERE YOU GO, a last start winner having her fourth start, was too good here and heads to the NZ 1000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) as a leading contender. She shared the early lead, into second soon after then took over the pace starting the bend. The lead was a half length past the 600m then eased out by a length starting the run home. She held a length lead past the 200m, was challenged wide out but had plenty in reserve to race clear by an easy length and three-quarters.

Art De Triomphe sat third last, one out, leaving the back straight, went three wide at the 600m and was four deep in fourth rounding into the straight. She balanced and chased into second at the 200m then kept going without looking like catching the winner for a solid second. I Wish I Win was second last approaching the 600m, went widest into the straight and maintained a strong run to the line for third. The Radiant One was second turning in and had every chance in the straight in battling fourth. Then followed: Regal Power (AUS), Naughty by Nature (AUS), Platoon (AUS), Last of the Line (AUS), Taxagano (AUS), Kay Cee (AUS), Neufbosc (FR), last.

Analysis: Honest mare DANCE MUSIC got the upper hand in a really good battle over the final 100m to bag career win 12 and her fifth stakes at start 28, fresh-up here. She began quickly to be third but soon took over second and held her position past the 800m. Inside the 600m she went up to the leader's flanks and challenged into the straight. She was still a neck back at the 200m, put her head in front at the 200m then slogged it out to the line for a gritty win. Massimo led them past the 800m as well as the 400m and into the straight. He was almost caught at the 200m, headed at the 100m but gave the winner a great fight to the line. Valour Road sat third past the 600m, third turning in and kept up a strong run to the line for third, doing his best work late. Regal Power was fifth rounding into the straight and ran on quite well for fourth. Analysis: Favourite THINK IT OVER had this under control from the 200m and took his record to nine wins including six Group victories. He co-led, three wide early before dropping into third starting the back straight. He held his position, one out, past the 1000m as well as past the 600m and moved another lane wider straightening for the run home. At the 300m, he shared second, co-led at the 200m, easily took over then drew clear for a dominant win. Sky Lab was last of the six runners past the 800m, went widest into the straight and finished quite well for second but he had no chance against the winner. Lion's Roar led them in, was caught at the 200m then fought on but lost second near the line. ANOTHER STAKES-WINNING GRADUATE Inglis

Analysis: EXTREME FLIGHT has now raced five times for three wins, those now being in succession after advancing from a win in a Moe maiden (1200m) on September 12 to recording his first stakes success here. He was eased from his outside barrier and settled in last place in the nine-runner field before tracking up (wide with cover) from the 600m. He then sprinted quickly, hit the front at the 200m and fought back for a narrow but very good win. Prince Alexander also settled towards the rear before being shuffled back to last nearing the turn. He then finished solidly in the straight, getting to within a half-head of the winner for a good second. Sandy Prince was a handy third but was suddenly under pressure at the 600m when the pace increased. He rallied to challenge at the 300m and then battled on quite well to take third, just in advance of Corkscrew who had enjoyed a nice trip on the rails before holding on for (6.2 lengths) fourth. Analysis: At start four, last start winner FANGIRL got her maiden stakes win in a race her dam also won, holding on well over the final 200m.

She settled midfield (rails) but from the 1000m was shuffled back through the field to be third last at the 800m and second last inside the 600m. Starting the run home she moved out, found a gap near the 300m, drove through to share the lead at the 200m then took over and had just one challenger the last 100m but was too good. A big run from Roots who was a clear last at the 1000m, tacked onto the field at the 600m, tracked the winner briefly to the 300m then switched to the inner before finishing strongly between runners to get up for second.

Decent Raine was midfield (rails) past the 600m, kept to the fence near the 300m then finished well along the inner to nab third late.

Riduna was a handy third at the 400m, co led at the 200m and kept going to lose third at the line. [LJ]

Analysis: Fresh-up, ELITE STREET returned to the winning form that saw him win the Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) here last November and take his career record to six wins in 14 starts. He was midfield, one off the fence upon settling and held there past the 400m and into the straight. Giving the leader four lengths at the 200m he reduced that to a half-length at the 100m then burst to the front and the half-length win. Twelve-year-old Rock Magic tracked the winner past the 600m and into the straight, went a lane wider at the 200m then ran home strongly for second. Stageman sat fourth, one out, near the 400m, was third at the top of the straight, squeezed through from the 100m then kept on solidly for third. Indian Pacific was second turning in, almost caught the leader but was swamped himself over the last 100m. HEADWATER

Leading Second Season Sire 2020-21

Analysis: MILEVA, winner of the Manihi Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Morphettville in March, scored a very good first-up win, resuming here for new trainer Phillip Stokes. She began well and crossed from her wide barrier (11) to settle in third place, but caught three wide. She moved up well at the home turn, took the lead at the 200m and then fought back strongly for a very good win, her fifth win in ten starts. Bless Her had a nice trip in fourth place, just behind the leading group, before commencing her move on straightening. She challenged at the 200m and fought really well for second. Never Talk did not show any early pace and was last early on. She improved between runners at the turn, switched deep at the 300m and then made good late ground to claim third in a photo from Emanate, who was sixth rounding the turn before battling on well for fourth. SIRE OF THE WORLD'S FASTEST
SPRINTER NATURE STRIP

VICTORIA

Analysis: Fourth in 2019 (led them into the straight) and seventh last year, after leading at the 200m, six-times Group 1 champion NATURE STRIP shot clear at the 200m and was able to hold out a late challenge and finally bag the big one here to take his win record to 18 from 33 starts, doubling his earnings in the process. He jumped brilliantly to form a line of four early, got a neck in front at the 1000m and took over by a length at the 800m. The lead was three-quarters of a length inside the 600m and straightening for the run home one off the fence had a length on them at the 400m. He added a further half-length at the 300m and was two lengths clear at the 200m, looking home. Inside the 100m he began to shorten his stride, the lead was down to a length at the 50m but despite a late lunge was able to hold on for the win by a long-head. A huge run from Masked Crusader who was slowest away, shared last at the 800m and was second last into the straight. From the 200m he weaved between runners and flew at the winner for a late-closing second. Eduardo sat fourth at the 800m, tracked the winner into the straight, chased hard from the 200m, was making ground inside the 100m but could not bridge the gap in a tough third. Lost And Running shared fifth (one out) at the 600m, shared fourth inside the 300m, third at the 100m and tried hard to the line for a head-bobbing fourth. Classique Legend sat third last (one out) at the 600m, went widest into the straight and kept up a strong run all the way to the line for (2.1 lengths) fifth. Trekking was eighth (rails) into the straight, drove along the inner at the 300m, moved out then kept chasing hard to the line for a good sixth. VERDICT Jimmy Ting's progressive 5yo MY SUGAR created a very good impression when scoring over C&D last month and is selected to overcome a 7lb rise. The other last-time-out winner, Master Hero is feared most, while Eligere is unexposed over this trip and might also feature.

● FANTASTIC WAY includes possible 2lb overweight

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Fantastic Way, 7-2 Fantastic Treasure, 4 Trillion Win, 8 Lucky More, 10 California Rad, Winning Dreamer, 14 Golden Dash, 20 Valiant Dream, 25 Gold Chest, 50 Ping Hai Bravo, Scores Of Fun, 100 Seattle Choice Sunny Boy.

VERDICT Fantastic Treasure and Fantastic Way both made excellent starts to their careers last season and are open to further progress this term but the former may not be ideally suited by today's drop back from 7f and the latter is drawn wide for his first start in this grade. It might pay to oppose them both with TRILLION WIN, who won in good style over C&D three weeks ago, has the inside draw today and might still have untapped potential over this trip.
